Mr. Arthur Barnard,

Saginaw, Mich.

Dear Sir:-

We hold a note $38.00, past due given by E.M. Roberts, who formerly was in business in your city, but is now employed as traveling salesman by Hemeter Cigar Co.

This note was received under peculiar circumstances, which we will explain to you here-after in case it is necessary. We have been trying to make collection but without any success. The party is paying everyone else and letting us go. We thought as you are located close by where he is employed, by using your influence, collection could be made without difficulty, although it might take three or four payments to wipe it out. Undoubtedly, he would rather make payment than to have any trouble with his position.

Now, if you are willing to take hold of this, we will send you the note at once. Please advise us what the chances would be, and oblige,

Yours truly,

Michigan Buggy Co.

Palmer.

G.T. Lay was a delegate to the 1860 Gen Conf where the name "Seventh-day Adventist" was chosen. Later he became so engrossed with his business affairs that he dropped out of the church. However, he returned a year or two before his death in 1901.
