X From the Motheria Magazine.  Lines Oceasioned by the Death of a Friend.

There are some tender flowers That secun at evening shade, As if their beaten forms
Had withered and were dead.
I'rt'tis not so-they only sleep, While cold and darkness reigns;
Let but the morning sun arise A nc they revive again.
'Tis thus with Christian friends
That vaniah from our eyes;
They are not dead-uhey only sleep, Till Christ shall say-"Arise"!

We then shall see their forms In God-like beauty clad; And then renew the Love
That erst had made us glad.
Kapra.
Aew York Dec. 2, 1844.

$+1844$.

The year Eightecn Ilundred forty-four, as computed by the powers that have "changed tiunes and laws" has passed away. A jear fraught with conseqences of more importance to the human family than any previous equal period of time, unloss it be that which first gave birth to the design of creating man in Gud's uwn image and likeness.-A year in which not much less than $30,000,000$ of our race have "suffered, groaned, and died;" and a hundred million hearts that have ienderly placed the green sod upon the bosom of loved ones, are left to bleed. No tie of afiection bas been tovetrong for death's unsparing hand-no warin kiss of carly love, too sweet fur the tyrant to withhold awhile tho dregs of surruw --No eye has sparkled too brightly to be shaded with his sable pall, and nu huinan arin too potent to fall powerless at his nod.--No soft music lass charmed away the destroyer, and, in this age of invention, no machinery of man has turned him aside from his work. Despite human effiort, death has closely pursued his cruel designs-the high and low, rich and pour, bond and free, male and female, young and old, have fullen.

A year of deeper interest, from the fact, that while the causes of human misery have greatly incrpased, the population of the world, according 10 the beet authoritiey, has more than proportionately increased.-Thus producing mure than conipound interest, annually to add, to the already monstrous sum total of human wocs.
Concentrate the annual sum of mortality, and look it fairly in the iace! Think of sixty cities like the great American Emporium, depopulated, and a huadred more clad in mourning in the short year 1814. In contemplating this picture, the heart that cannot fecl, must he cne that is sunk to the level of the brute, and in which the fountain of human sympachies is forever dried. The cye that eannot weep over it, is one that is never stirred at the sight of miscry and destitution. As our thoughts are turned to the history of the past -in tracing up the stream of time, we see nothing we would have restored, that casts a ray of hope upon this dark pieture, till we reach tle spot where the Lord God walhed among " the trees of the Garden" and held converso with his creature man: But man has grieved his Maker, and by sin brought death into the world. We now cast our eye befure us-"rabove, bencath, and all around," and from every point, sare one, the pleture darkens, & despair setiles down upon us. Bible, Tract, 8abbeth sichool, Temperance, and Moral Refure ecciesise, ameliorate our conditioa, but they detrece but litlle from the annual bill of mortality. The grsechieg of a gospel that points to the grave-the already dark and solitery resting place of one hundred thousand millions of mortal beings, as the consummation of human hopes, is no good tidings to "the whole creation" that "groancth and travaileth in pain together unill now."
The voices of the master spirits of the age on Zion's walls, have been lifted high in defence of a remedy for this sickening scene; but I will not swear that many of them are not Jesuits in disguise, in the service of his majesty, the Prince of this world-pledged to carry on his work; for their harangues during the year 1844, have been loud and clamorous in favor of $\mathbf{1 0 0 0}$ years perpituity of this rork of the deril, while the deril him. self they would have bound. Indecd, some have so plainly shown which side of the question they are on, as to publish the eternal perpituity of death in our world, in the room of that faithful prediction, that Jesus Clirist "hath abolislied death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel.

The only hope of a groaning creation, for deliverance from these poisonous winds of adversity and death, is the fulfillment of "the promise made to the fathers"-"The Resurrection of the dead"the deatruction of "death and hell"-" the restitation of all things"-The kingdom "under the tation of all things"-The kingdom uniler the whole heaven" being given to the eaints of the Most Iligh.
Are we told, the grod man should not groan for "all the wicked" to be "destroyed": We reply that the good man cannot pray for the overthrow of his enemies because he wants to sce them punished, but because he longs to have Him Reign, "whose right it is." Still, is it not the most merciful prayer that we can offer, and also the moat reasonable? Every day is adding to the sin, and eoneoguont enndemuatiun of thi bicat ....ass ur mankind, which, neither the experience of the past, nor tho word of God teach us will ever become any better. Besides this, ten hundred millions that now inhabit the earth, must at all events, be cut off within the short spice of thirly years, and were not the Christian's hope to be realized till then, not only ten hundred malliniss, but nearly double that number would be left upon the earth to re-enact, and improve upon, all the diabolical octs of wickedness and rebellion a gninst the government of God, with which we are now surrounded.
Every principle of Justice, Mercy, and truthof Love to God aud man.- Every principle of reason and Revelation, is in favor of the consumnation of the believer's lope, in the "Coming of Christ and the Resurrection;" and every redeemed faculty of man will respund, Amen! Even so, Come Lord Jesus ! !

The year 1844, has been a gear of more importance to the lover of Christ's appearing than the year 1843, or any previous grar; because it has developed a page of fulfilled prophecy that has greatly strengithencd our faith in "the word of God." and confirmed cur hopes of a speedy-glorinus Resurrection. In it has been drawn a line, showing more clearly who lore, and who hate the appearing of Christ, than over before. In it has ended the "second watch" of that prophetic "night" which 18 to terminate our carihly tuils.--In it has been fulfilled, as never befure, the predicted cries of "peace and safety," "every vision faileth," " my Lord delayeth his coming." " smiting of fe!low ecrvants," "scuffers in the last days," "mockers in the last tinic." In it lias gone furth the "spirit of devils working miracles," or ancient " witcherafi" reduced to a popular science, as in the days of Paul, when it was called "Exorcism," but is now bnown by the name of "Mesmerism."

The jear 1844, has given birth to the predicted cry at "midnight, Behold the I'ridegroom cometh ! go ye out to meet him."--It has broughe to our ears the first glad notes of the "Seveath Trump." while

The anger of the nations  In wild consmution rise.

Although, during the past ycer we have been made "partakers of Christ's sufferings"-subjecter! to trials and disappointments "as all our fathers were," yet strengthened from a thousand points, we are still able to rejoice in all our triblations, knowing that "when his glory shall be revealed we shall be glad with exceeding joy."
"Eighteen hundred and forty-four" has lef un in the time of "patience," and in the "third watch" of the last prophetic night that will ever spread its mantle of dariness over the land of graves-just upus the verge of that "lovely morning,"
"Where sin and death no more controll
The sacred ileasures of the soul.'

1845.

The (crratis fosmiy; wive from pole of pote:
Wben Mpring and Suumer-Autumn, Wiacer, here
No longer mark the changre of the year:
When etoud wr reallied mounanainge, thet emurace the obiee
And Bina, murniling lron lin liser. shall apreal
Finnes lliad slall derompose earth's rocky hed:
When you hrisith tatarg grow dilm, that silvd theis light.
No munn slaill thiline liy day, no moon hy night:
When man and nature reculde at the merifa,
And death's derp darkness o'er thin carth nhall apreal
And graves wide oprued, shall yield up lieir deed;
Oh! then, when chaves rules. that reigned before
Barth fill'd its specc, thea" "тint salle be ne mone
Never more lovely did the rays of sunlight rest

> On fields of smiling grcen, or L'nrufiled occan's deep, than upon our city and surrounding hills, vallies, and "boautiful rivar" on the first day of Eighteen hundred and forly-fice. The fires burned bus faintly in the parlor, and counting-room-lle merchant's duars were thrown open to welcome the sun's returning beams-the customary dark cloud of smoke arifing from bituminous coal, was swept away by the pleasant brecze, and the ecer fulling soot, refrained from besmearing our faces on that day. Every check seemed to bear the glow of healih-every countenance smiledevery footstep was bunyant--every ege sparkled. while the usual salutation of "Happy New Year" was heard at almost every step, as I passed slow. Iy along "Main street," the "Chesnut strcet" of the "Quecu City :" and thus ran any medita. tions.

Will all these "happy" wirhes be roalized? Will 1815 perform what it secus to promise! Will it be more merciful to our sace ibaia dice year that has just sent the last dark page of it record to IIeaven's tribunal! O deceitful world: How many of this giddy tnultitude will "b.te the dust they tread with scorn" befure another year is to'd? God lias called, and called again, to raise the thoughts of this urithinking throng aborg " happy wishes" fur the extension of Siatans reign-still they "wish" and lung, and pray, that earth may continue to groan bencallits currupted mass. Lut will it thoss !--er walh one mights struggle, burst its cankercal vand:, in obedience to its Maker's word; and sentter far the imple. ments of death and ruin! This sun of peace tha: sheds its pleasing rays un mountain, and glen, 59 if in patient waiting to kiss the carly bud of spring, and drink the expanding flower's swect perfume,--io nillions of our race, must prove a trcachermis sinh. True, slue duth sise and sit a-gain-the moon sheds, as usual, its pale beams on the darhness below:--Tbe stars eparkle in the firmanent, and bere on earth, "all things continuc as they wore." The sivriny wind still leads its aid to bear the anxious marriner benceth his whitened asil, to the deeired port. The mountain bllows, with their wonted thunder, still lash the distant coast, and mighty rivers roll toward their oceas bome. The muantaine atill mix their folds with lazy clouds, and the tall cedars, graceful "wave their heeds to him "hon bede thein grow." The noble horse- the failliful ox-the beest and bird, now rests : while man has turned from his accustomed toil aside, to pay his "New Year's" complimenis--:asto his "New Yoar's" checrsettle his "Old Year's" accounta, and start on life's course again. God, and his truth
" Forgoten lir 4. "
God's Prophets gave us "times and scasons," when his people should no longer be "irodden down," and the "first dominion" should returnwhen earth sloould be restored, and his saints that "sloep in the dust" awake. Eighteen hundred years, and more are gone, since the rightful heir to David's fallen Throne, renewed the promise, and with these cheering words, lit up the torch of hope within the pilgrimy breast. "When ye shall see all these thinge cume to pass, trien know that the kingdom of Giod is nigh." As it was then, so 100 W ; there are but few ${ }^{\text {t }}$ mark the passing signs, and know "when these things come to pass."
These precious words nuw fail to charm but feur -they lie neglected, or spiritualized a way - while by Satan's cunning art, his menial scriant deati, by almost unanimous consent, wears the honor, of promising at least, to place upon the christians brow his "crown of G lory:" An honor, which the tried servant of Jesus, will never consent to take from his Master, and give to the decil's slare.
What means all this? There is nothing like it in the history of the past! Is it not "the dead calun" that gocs before the coming storm?-. The low murmur that breeds the tempest! the hollow groan that portends the approaching "Earthquake, such as never was, since men wers upon the earth, so mighty and so great."

> lince Cuserman now zather as harh not liren sern
> 'inee Cianart, upon the crom on Calvary's Mount, Giave up the opirit to his maker Gol.
> And there, the thunders and the lightitingen forn
> Ind bred lozether. are the allied powers:
> Then the strong elements, well disciplined.
> Prepare for an altack uppor the foe
> Th ! who shall aketeh the countenance of It
> Who to the ceme, ahould unirer ranl worida
> Fly from thelr orbita through the rralms of specc.
> And at mas Mding breed cliantic mrife!
> Darknem increagri-one refulzent star
> 'The "Paince or PKA'E," decending from hix [1atuenaj > Hiphisnne.
> Hiah in the Heaven of Hravens a'over our lica is > Inideat the glory of cternal lizht

The soul that can wantonly trifle with the warnings b:ought to their cars in the year 1944, can dimore....They can reach furih their hand to play with the lightnings of Almighty vengance, or treading the thin crust of the sleceping Volcano, can say, "I will exalt my throne alove the stars of God." "I will be like the most High."
The faithfully prelicted ".Midnight C'ry," has aent out its notes into every corner of this land, ao faithfully pictured on the prophectic page, as the great Theatre of the Gospel's last work. Su sureiy then, as a faithful fod has fulfilled this last predicted message of "jny to the daughters of sorrow ;" eo surely will carth's slumbering thunders awake, and secer the iron bands of the sleeping saint, and let into his rathly ecll, the long excluded rays of the "glory that exerlleth."
Treading the threstuld of the ycar 1455, it beromes us niore than ever before, to watch fur the returning "Bridegroom; for never before have we teen surrounded with such cerlain evijences of his speedy approach.
Although darkness, for the moment, reigns in the mass of mind around us, yet, this year epens up before usa "Now Era." An cra of resplendant glory ; like "Ezekiel's river," widening out in:o an eternal expanee or happiness. It is mori than madness for us now to slumber, or for a mo "Ient to doubt that "our great de'iverer's nigh."
Let those who will, make inuch of this distract nil and distractung world ; the waitinz pilgrimi's thoughts are far above it, where his sacred tres. houghes are far above it, where his sacred trea sure lies. He has furned away his ryce from its 0 go to perdition-to ". look back," je, liki " L, ote wilf," to be petrified.

Thanking (i)d for "mercies past." and trusting him for wist is to come, I close hy praying that Christ :na: have his promised rights,..."The heathen for in; inheritance, and the uttermost perts of the $\cdots 1 / 1 i$ for his posecssions;" and by wishing all Goo where the the waters ar childrea "a happy newera," ; of God is to "cover the earth as or the sen."
${ }^{*}$ These tw . . acts are from the poetie works of H. S. Gib.

WESTERN MIDNIGHT CRY.

Cincinnati, Thursday, Jamary $9,1843$.

TIIE CAISE IX TIIS PLACE.

God has mercifully interposed in preserving the band of Advent Believers in this place, in peace, harmony and love-and in a "patient waiting for his Son frum heaven." I humbly trust he will here find a "little fluck" to whom he will say, "It is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom."
The meetings at the Tabernacle, and at private houscs during a part of the week evenings, continue in interest.
In accordance with the suggestions of brethren at the East, the first day of January was observed as a day of iasting and praycr. Lectures were delivered at the Taberuacle, in the morning and afternoon of that day-the last one by Bro. Lewis Hicklin, of Indiana, who is now on a tour through this State, to comfort the brethren.
In the evening, a business meeting of the Association was t.eld, and the remaining debt upon the Tabernacle, amounting to about $$ 735$, voluntarily divided among the friends, and thus an end was put to the various false rumors, that the huilding was to be converted intn a pork house. stable, &ic. &c.

We have had a tolerable share of falsehinds, and "evil repor's" circulated about us, but in the room of inflicting an injury, though such might have been intended, the effect has been, more effectually to draw off our attention from a treacherous world, and fix our affections more firmly upon the Coming One.

In this place, as in every other, more evil has been aecomplished by pretended frieuds of the cause, than by any, or all others. Under a pretext of ilcep feetang for the cause, such can go from house to house, retailing slander about those they far to mect " face to face" as God directs : - But they shall proceed no further; for their fully shall be manifiest unto all men," as was the fully of those that withstoad Moses. 0 why wiit rail man-" a worm crushed before the moth," violate the phinest principles of God's unchanging truth ?
Be patient brethren, our case is before a tribu nal where every thought, word, work, and design, will be accurately weighed in the balances of the Sanctuars-a tribunal every honest man and woman will love, whaterer its decision may be in their own individual case.

TIIE TRIE MILENXIM.

In nur last number an intimation was given wat sume further notice wou'd be taken of Bru. II. B. Woodcock's article under the above caption. The first ohjectionable clause is the fullowing.
"At that time [the close of 13.13] the sun (or l.amp) was darkened; the moon (or Chureh) did not gire hier light; and many a brilliant star fell is the carth."

However necessary it may secm that the terms. "sun," " moon," and "stars " should be figuratively understood, it does not appcar warranted in this place. In applying the language of scripture, it is a safe rule never to understand it figuratively, until it is first proved that it cannos be literally understood. This, I think cannot be done in this case, for none can deny that the predictions of the Saviour relative to the darkening of the sun-moon, and fa!ling of the stara, has been inost literally fulfilled within the present gencration: Besides, I am not aware that the "sun" is any where used in the Bible to prefigure "Lamp" or "Word of God." The same objec. tion may also be urged against the application of the recent excitement under the sound of the " Midnight Cry" to the predicted "great carth. quake." A constant danger intu which we are liable to fall, arises from an anxiety to find events applicable to scripturo which wo have made. up our minds, must now be fulfilled.-Thus, we may be unfitted for the great evente that cannot be far in the future. While we would shun the "hypocricy" and sin of failing to "discern this time" by the "signs " around us, we should also carefully a void those lanciful applications of scripture that have obscured their light in past ages.

When wrong promises are laid down, error becomes easily established: That the premises of our respected correspondent are wrong, may be readily seen from his conclusion that the "seventh soal" has been opened, and the predicted haiff hour of "silence" taken placo.
I know not that I fully comprehend his views in regard to the "Seven Seals," but if I do, the idee is carried that they apply to the book of "Revelation" alune-that their opening is in the order in which they are laid down, and consequently all tho events named under the "Sixth Seal" must transpire, before the serenth is opened. This is the only safe way in which they can be understood.

Let us then enquire, Have oll the events named under the sixth seal transpired?

The first named is the "great earthquake" (Rev. $6: 12$ ). This may liave been fulfilled in the earthquake which took place about the sear 1757, as has been argued by able students-be. ing the most extensive one, of which any record can be fuund : But there is reason in the mupposition that this is simply a "prologne" to the narration, which more fully describes the earthquake in verses 14 and 15 . In either case, the fultilment must be literal or the idea of it being) a revelation would be destroyed.
The next event named under this seal is, "The sun became black as sackeloth of hair, and the moon became as bload : and the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely [or green] figs when she is shaken of a mighty wind." It is unnecessary for us here to repeat that these events are all literally fulfilled. The record is plain!y spread upon the page of ouri world's history, lying betireen the years 1780, and 1633, and no where else. This should be as clear a demonstration to the enquiring mind, that the remainder of the cvents will be literally fulfilled, as that the remainder of the 2300 days of Daniel are to be fu!filled in gress, when 400 of; them are proved to be thus fulfilicd. If we are to have part of a prediction spiritually falfilled, and a part literal, when nothing in the connexion makee such distinction; our conclusinos are mere assumptions, and the "sure word of propheey" becomes fritlered aray to an empty name.
The next events are, "The hearen departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain ard island were muved out of their places."
This certainly has not been fulfilled, for when it is done " the heavens above and earth tencath" must bear the record; which it does not yet do. Agein, we have the direct cause of the final calamitics of the "kings of the certh, and the great men, and the rich men," &ec. "The face of him that eitteth on the throne," and not any particular power with which "the elect" are cluthed, extorts from them a confersion of the truth of what they now 00 stoully deny will ever take paceviz. "the great day of his wrath is come."
After reading this, in connexion with Jude 14, 15; 1 Thess. 4: 16, 17; 2 Thess. 1: 6-10, and the parallel texts, the only rational conclusion to which we can come reletive to "the great day of his wrath"-the "time of trouble such as never was," &ec., is, that it must le developed by the personal Advent of our Lord "to execute"judg. ment upon all," when he will be attended with all his "raised" "clanged" saints.
The cloee of the sixth seal finds the wicked in the midat of the great day of God's wrath, Rev. 6: 17, and the righteous having come "out of great tribulation"-"before the Throne"-serving him "day and night in his temple." From thence they are to "return" to ". Zion" - the "new Earth" at the close of the half hour filence, Isa. 35: 10Typified in Joshua 6: 10-16, by the Iaraelites entering upou the promised land.
The conclusion of Bru. W.-as to the fact of the seventh trumpet "beginning to sound" in the "seventh month" of the present Jewish year, seems to be both rational, and scriptural. That the plagues will be poured out under the sounding of this trumpet, may also be correct: But he has not given us the seripture warrant that " many a true hearted Christian will perish in this last great conflict."
There is no intimation that any but the impenitent are affected by these "plagups."
The application of "Armageddon" (Rev. 16: 16) to "America" is a new interprctation, but there is something in it worthy of being looked at. The mesning of the term "Armageddon" is, "Tho mountain of Megiddo, or the mountain of the Goopel; otherwise, the mountsin of fruits, or of "apples." In connexion with this, take the fact. that the great moral machinery for the spread of ithe Gospel, after the 1200 years of I'apal ruleduring which time the Gospel was "clothed in 'packeloth," has boen mainly devised,-..set in motion and carried forward in this country; and furthermore, that it is the most fruitful land on 'carth: Bro. W.' application of "Armageddon" is (not without some reason.

In referring to " the abomination of desolation apokea of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place " as yet futuro, Bro. W. has left unnoticed the expositions of Matt. 24 : which, I think, ciearly proves the fulfilment of that prediction, int the usurpations of Papac!, before which power the church "fled into the wilderness." Sce "Western Midnight Cry," vol. 4, pp. 59, 50, C0, ©5, 66, 67.
The position that the "seals belong to the kingdom of God, and reach down to the final triraph of all the sainte" is probably corrcet; neither heve I any objection to the idea that the "sceling time" commenced with the opening of the sixth seal, and ended in the reventh month.
"The $144,0 \% 0$ are a chosen number for a epecial purpose ; and that number is 144,000 , and no more or less; and the purpose for which they are chosen is to reap the harvest."
I see not one particle of evidence to sustain this atatement, "The harvest is the end of the world," Matt. 13: 39.-The firat work is gathering the tares in bundies, to burn them; which work Bro. W. must beheve is done, if he believes the sealing time ended in the eeventh month. Aner the burning of the Tares, the rightcous "shine forth as the sun in the kingdom"--new Earth; and they muat have been "clanged" sometime before this, to have 1 Thess. 4: 16; 1 Cor. 15: 52, fulfilled. The saints, yet mortal, may have had a hand in "gathering together the elect," but it is Christ himself that reaps " the carth," Rev. 14: 16; John 5: 28,29 , while "another angel " reaps the vine and casts it "into the great wine press of the wrath of God," Rev. 14: 17-20. Hero the resurrected, and not mortal saints will participate in the Great battle-and that not till after "the marriage supper of the Lamb." Sce Rev. 19 : 9-21. That the " marriage supper of the Lamb" takes place immediately upon the resurrection and changing of all the sainte, is proved in Luke, 14: 12-14, and its cunnexion. The distinction between the " marriage supper of the Lamb," and the " marriage of the King's Son," if in reality there be any distinction, is not important, since there is no proof that the carth must be purified befure either of them takes place.
From Ezekiel 37: 38 : and 39th chapters, it is evident that the "cleansing of the land" is after the resurrcetion of "the whole honse of Israel."
There are other points in the argument of Bro. W. that might be noticed as objectionable, but as the principles embraced in the preceding remarks covers them, it wall not be necessary to go farther at this time.
One thing seems certain; if these cvents of "great tribulation" are yet to take place befure the deliverance of the saints, we are so far left without evidence of the fact that it is made an indis. ponsable duty to look for Christ, and not for intervening events.
Not long since an indivitual attended a second advent meeting where the principal topics of discussion were the yet fulure triumph of wickedness, and the time of trouble spoken of by Daniel, (as was claimed) to transpire before the resurrec-tion-remgrked, that in the room of looking fur Christ, as they were commanded to do, they seemed to be locking for the dctil.
No true belicver in the speedy advent, can for a moment slrink from any trial that may come, for they have loing since decided that these truths are worth infinitely more than their heads: But from all the evidences, we ma;" "Comfurt" (God's people with the blessed assurance that their "warfare is ended," and God will now be better to those that have stood the trial of their faith, than all their fears.

Vision of the Eagle. $f$

Our next number will conlain an exposition of the vision of the " $\mathrm{F}, \mathrm{igle}$," 2 Endrac, 11 h and 12 th chapters, copied from the "Vuce of Truth." Those who wish to examine this interesting prophecy, "hidden" for the " laat times," will send their urders immediatciy, as only abou: 100 cupies can be spared after supplying our regular subseribers.

"The Finige that are Coming on the Barth."

The first account of a singular "fatality among the fish," which we received a few weeks pince, was passed by unpoticed: But the subjoined account, which is taken from one of our City papers, if it be true, renders it probeble, that it is a fulfillment of predictions coatained in the Bible, and direetly connected with the "gromet day of God." A few out of many texsts are added that the reader naly examine them with their contexts.
" Fatality anong the Fish,-A genileman who has just returned from the sea shore of Niem Jersey, informs the U. S. Gazette that the whole shore, for 30 or 40 miles, is cuvered with dead fioh, cast up by the sea. They are of all kinds, from the smallest perch, to the largest sturgeon; some rock fish, weighing forty or fifis pounds, and rich sea bass. Many of the fish are washed up before they are dead. So great is the number, that a gentleman computed that on Leaming's Beach alone there must be 10,000 bushela. What hat happened among the fish, we cannot tell, as we do not know to what unwholesome influences they are liable in the deeps below, but eomething extraordinary mast have been in operation to produce an evil so extensive. Was it a volcanic eruption! It will be recollected that a few days ago we geve a similar account from Long Island Sound, this is nost singular, and extends over a stretch of several huadred miles of coast."
The "Seven last Plagues" of Revelation, are ypified by the "plagues of Egypt."
Ex. 7: 18, "And the fish that is in the river shall die."
Psa. 125: 29, "Me turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish."
Rev. 10:3, "And the sccond angel poured ous his vial upon the sea ; and it became as the blood of a dead man; and every living soul died in the sea."
The firat plague might have had its fulfillment in the troubles of Rome, in connexion with the Civil and Ercimanatical powers: See ver. $1,2$.
Rev. 7: 3. The four angels are charged to "Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees. till we have sealed tho servante of God in their forcheads."
If the sea, (or its inhabitants) is "hurt" as it never was before, then the sealing time is done.
Isa. 19: 8, "The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall la. ment, and they that epread nets upon the waters shall languish." See almo verses 9-17.
Isa. 23: 45, "Be thou ashamed, 0 Zidon : for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying. I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor brine up virgins. As at the repurt concerning Eg] pt, [when their fish died] so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre," or atrong nation. Ver. 11, "He stretcheth out his haud over the sea, he shook tio kingdums," dic.
Isa. 24: 14, "They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the Lord, they shall ery alcud from the sea. Wherefore glorify ye the loord in the fires," &ec.
Isa. 50: 2, "Behold, at niy rebuke I dey up the sea; I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh because there is no water, and dieth for thirst."
Ezek. 29: 5. "I will leare thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and a!l $l$ l. fish of thy rivere thon shalt fall upon the open fields; th:ou shal: wit be brought together, nur gathered: I have given thee for meat to tice beasis of the field and to the fowls of the heaven."
Faek. 34: 19, :30. "Por in my jealousy ard in the tire of my wrath have I spoken, surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of loracl; ss that the fisties of the sea, and the foals if the heaven, and the beacts of the tield, and at creeping thinge that creep upin the carth, and all the men that are upon tho face of tho enrib, shail shake at my presence, and the mour.taips shall be thrown down, and the steep placcs shall fall, and overy wall shall fall to the ground."
Zeph. 1: 3. "I will consume man and beast; I will coasume the fowls of the licaven, and the fashes of the sea, and the stumbling blocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man frous off the land, eaith the Lond." Ver. 10. "And it shall come to pees in that day, sath the Lord, that there rhall be the soise of a cry frow the fish gate, and an howling from tho secoud, and a great crashing from the hills."

Homee 4: 1, 8. "Hear the word of the Lord, ye childen of Israel; for the Lurd hath a cuntroversy with the iuhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor kn'wledge of God in the land. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and etealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood louchicth blood. Therefort, shall the land mourn, and every one that drelleth therein shall languich, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; ypa of fishes of the sea also, thall be TAKEN A. The fishes WAY."
Het. 3:8. "Was the Lord diepleared egainst the rivers! Was lhine anger against the rivers? Was thy wrath againat the sea, that thou didst ribe upoa thine horsea and thy chariots of salvation !"
Zech. 10: 11. "And he whall pass through the sea with effiction, and shall swite the waves in the sean, "cle.
Pan. 77 : 18, 19, "The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven; the lightnings ligntened the world; the carth trembled and shook. Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footetepe are not known."
Pan. 89 : 25. "I will sct his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers." See verses 10-37.
Hag. 2 : 6. "Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the hearens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land."
Heb. 12: 27. "And this word, 'vet once more" migaifieth the removing of those ilings that may be staken, as of things that are made, that those thiage that cannot be shaken may remain.Wherefore we receiving a kingdou," &c.
Luke 21 : 25, 20. "Upon the earth distreas of mations with perplexity; the sea and the raves roaring: Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things that a ro coming un the earth: for the powers of heavea shall be shaken."
I do not wish to be understood an conseying the idee that these texts are all fulfilled in the alove named "fatality"-they aro presented to show eveate with which it is connected. Men have sema the rigns "in the heaven above, and in the carth beneath," and now, that signs are done, and the thinge themselves begun, under the "second plague," can it be expected that many will profit by these things? It is written that under the very last of these pingues, "Mon blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail."

Ecel. 9: 12. "For man also knoweth not his time : as the fishes that are taken in an evil net. and as the birds lhat are caught in the snare; $\boldsymbol{r}$ are the sons of men nuared in an evil time, when it falleth sudded!y upon them."

J. B. COOL.

Our belored Bro. Cuok, arrived in this place on Friday last. Though cunsiderably afflicted with rheumatism, brought on by his arduous laburs, jet he was able to lecture three times in the Tabernacle on Sabbath last.

His unessago way truly comforting. He purposes to leavo in a fow days fur Indianapolic, Ind.
The fullowing is a brief eynopsis of his dis course delivered on Sabbath morning. Text, Exodus 8 d chapter.
Having turned our backs upon the world, and gone "furith to meit the Dridegronm," we find an "deptation in the wurd of Giud that prevente our "Proing back" again.
Proan this chapter we learn much of God, and the distioction be matree between thuse that serve him, and hose that serve him not. -The design of Gul eatends from creation's beginang to its end, nid overs the histury of all worlds. - The Egypre stuod in the way of his chariot whecls, aud 1 : : cre judged.
Thr anaic, forms the basis of the Christian dispe $\cdots!a n$; and strong analugies exist between them. : ise of which will here be noticed.
Alis his: ${ }^{2}$ and his posterity were chosen to be the per of God, and were, above all uthers, peculto: :" their National character Then read Irom (: i... 1:: Deut. 6: 7; 2 Cliron. 20: 7.
So nie 'jod's Isracl nor--a peculiar-a chosen people, fial. 3: 6-9, 26-29; 1sa. 42: 3--5; Kom. 4: 13 .
Again, aflictions were predicted as the lot of God's anc ent people; Gen. $15: 1 . .15$, &c. As lung as they were in Egypt they were afflicted, yet they grew and pruspered. There is a kind of grass, the more it is irudden upon, the more deep and firm it takes root:-Su with grace; the mure it is tried, the strunger and more vigorous its exercise.
As long as Christians are in this world, like Israel in Egypr, they wall have "I'ribulation." If they call ""lio Master of the house Beelzebub," so will tiney call the uembers of his household. The ruling spirit of this world has never changed its eharacler, nor never will. Four universal eunpires were predicied to "tread duwn" the people of God, untul, with Christ at their head, the saints take the kingdom. The fires have beeu kindled around the "duwn troddeu," yet like the "burning bush" they have nut been cousumed. Nearly 11,000,000 Christhans have been burned by the last une uf theso munarchies, but not a grain of the pure gold has perished.
God's ancient people were not to change or remodel the Guvernment of Egypt:
Su Chrislians can hever clange the worldy governments under which they live. The Dragon reigned in the first, and he reigns in the last; and will reign, till chaiued by the ${ }^{-}$Coining One."
Agaili, to God's ancient people, deliverance was promised, Gen. 13: Ex. 6: 6..8:-
Yet not so full aud frequent are these promises, as thuse made to all liod's people of a glorious Resuirection at the coming of Christ, Matl. 1 : 21.... When will the do this? Heb. 9 : 28 ; Rom. 8: 21..23. It is as ubsurd to expret pardun and furgiveness without the blood of Christ, as to expect salvation without the Second Advent.
As the time drew near for the Israelites to be dilivered trom the bundage of Eyypt, Muses was raised up for a deliverer, to communicate with then that they might be the better prepared to leave the land of oppresision. He that set in "Satan's seat"-chat he might overthrow this deliverer, issued a decree that ull the male children should be slain ; but God who is " high over all," controlling cause and eftiect, looked down, and both guided and guarded the work he had begun. The mother of Mures, in finth, committed him, in his irail vessel, to the river: A watchful providence sown restured him to her arms-adding a compensation fur a muhther's care.
Nuses, "after he had cume to years" interpo sed in tavir of an cppre sed brolher, and "slew the E. yotian: :--Tius a nolher providence drove him from tho corraption of of a heathen court, where he would have been untited for his work.
Fiend the account of the first appearing on earth of our Cireat Delivercr...- His life was snught... yet ho lived, and triumphed o'er the Christian's foe.
A time was given for the drliverance of God's ancient peup'c, Girn. 1: $\bar{J}-16$; Act $-7: 6,7$. And not only time, but crents to fill up that tinee.... The four gencrations tilling up the tour bundred jears.
Su God hath appointed a day in which he will judge tho world, Acts 17:31; Hab. 3: 1..3; Dant. $8: 13,14$. The four generations answer to the four kingdoms, tha: were tu allict Gud's people.
Every attempt made to escape froin Eegyt iscreased their trials. They were delayed, and accused of idenes:; and tien, in their trials, they complained of Muse-, and said "the Lord look upon you and judge." Mluscs, not fully undervianding God's plan, and having none w aympethise with hian, complaiacd to the Lord. Arier they had left their work, and started for Canaan, there arose an absolute necessity for a Divine interposition. They could not build a bridge across the Red Sea, nor a fleet to carry them over: And " on that self same day"...the end of the predicted period; the wholo hoat was delivered.
('To be conlinued.)

LETTBRS.

Bro. D.'M. C., of Fredericktown, O., has sent - communication which he wishes published. He sent the pay for his paper, which is more than every one does; and we should be glad to accom nodate him, but nust decline his article for the reason that it is made up of assumptions, and no accompanying proof. Well written articles, that have a fuir show of evidence will not be excluded though they may differ from cherished views of my own.
Bro. D. DI. C.states that we are looking for the wrong kingdom-the kingdom of the Man of Sin is to be set up and to last 42 months, to the end of the third wo:-this kingdom cannot be revealed by theury-is hid from the wise and prudent, and revealed to babes - those that are trodden down; And all this he claims to "know by experience."
Ilis exhortation for me to take the yoke of Christ upen me, and learn of him, is received with all kindnass, and I will endeavor, as I have boen striving to do, still, through grace, to improve upon it.
( Bro. A. S. Richardson, Postmaster at Waterbury, Vt., writes Dec. 26, 1844. "The brothren increase in faith daily. Bro. Himes preached here on Saturday and Sunday last-the house wes full. The Spirit moves like the moving of many waters. It inoves with the soul that desires to be filled :-Not as man measureth, but with measure pressed down, and running over. Glory be to Jesue, for the fountain is full !-free for all."

Letter from Bro. Iolmes.

Mulberry. January 5th, 1945.
Dear Bro. Jacobs:-I enclose you one dollar, my mite towards sustaining the "Weatern Midnight Cry." As many are giving their opinion what the "sign of the Son of Man" wi!l be, I will alyn give mine. (God, by the mouth of his Propls. et, I think, lias clearly revealed what it is. Isaiah 30 : 25, and unward, " Moreover the light of the inown thall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven fuld as the light of eeven dass, ill the day that the Lord lindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound: Behold the name of the Lord comineth from a far, burving with anger, and the burden therenf is heavy. Ilis lips are full of indigna. tion, and his tongue as a devouring fire, and his breath as an overflowing stream shall reach to the indst of the neck, (for what? he says,) to sift the natio:: with the: :ieve of valuily, and there shall be a bridle in the jaw sof the pcop'c, causing them to err, when rind heals the breach of his people :" Nut the carnal Jew, for lie is not the Lords. Then the abuve sign will be given, and all Christs children at least will understand it, and the ungodly will begin to cill for "rocks and mountains to fall" on them and lide them from the presence of Him that eiteth upun the thione. May the Lord piepare us for that glorious happy day, which according to every appearance is so close upon us!
Yours, as ever luoking fur the glorious appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.
E. HOLMES

Letters and Receipts.

Jcin Phelps, P. M.; J. Finley, l'. M.; John H. Kf:nt; Lewis Hicklia, s1.00 ; E. Holmes, P. MI., 1.00 ; Daniel NeCoy, 1.00; 11. L. Smith, 1.00 ; Juseph Fassitt, 1.00; a Friend, 3.00: D. Partholomew. 1.00; Jaines Munjar. .25; J. H. & J. P. 1.00; A. 8. Richardron, P. M., 1.00 ; Iseac Paxtoa, .50 ; a Friend, 50.

