

Clark Tower

V 18-19
Sept 1942 - July 1943

B34

VOL. XVIII

UNION COLLEGE, LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, SEPTEMBER 23, 1942

NO. 1

UNION COLLEGE ENROLLMENT GAINS

STUDENT OFFICERS ELECTED FOR YEAR

The following is a partial report of offices being filled for the school year 1942-43 as submitted by the nominating committee and acted upon by the entire student body.

Clock Tower

Editor-in-chief.....Arlene Church
Associate Editor.....Eldon Dick
Associate Editor.....Lorraine Davis
Make-up Editor.....Harold Lickey
Typists.....Jane Kiva-chuck,

Prudence Ortner, Esther Groom,
Jean Rees, Valerie Ware
President and Business

Manager.....Norman Krogstad
Secretary and Treasurer.....

Morna Lequier
Circulation Manager.....

Harold Wernick
Assistant Circulation Manager....

Eileen Mayberry
Advertising Manager.....

Edward Nordstrom

The following offices are filled for first semester:

Sabbath School

Superintendent.....George MacLean
Asso. Supt.....Evelyn Grimstead
Secretary.....Avis Erickson
Asso. Secretary.....James Mershon
Chorister.....Merlin Woesner
Assistant Chorister.....

Irma Faye Berbohm
Pianist.....Eleanor Krogstad
M. V. Society

Leader.....James Pogue
Assoc. Leader.....Lynette Anderson
Secretary.....Helen Johnson
Assoc. Secretary.....Clifford Johnson
Chorister.....Charles Seitz
Asst. Chorister.....Robert Edwards
Pianist.....Naomi Draper
Asst. Pianist.....Mavis Betts

Miller to Direct Girl's Glee Club

A girls' glee club with a membership of twenty-three has been organized at the academy, under the direction of Mrs. H. A. Hartman and Mr. H. Miller. The academy is fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Miller to help in the music department.

An academy instrumental ensemble class in music with an enrollment of ten has been organized by Professor Carl C. Engel.

STAFF MEETS STUDENTS

Jovial banter and hearty greetings dwindled into pasty grins and weak handclaps as the students and teachers of Union College participated in the reception held in the administration building Saturday night, September 19, 1942. James Chase, senior from South Dakota, and Helen Johnson, senior from Nebraska, were at the head of the reception line.

When everyone had met everyone else and remembered practically no one, Dean Lawrence called the group to order. The first number was given by Mrs. Hartman and Miss Kiehnhoff who played a piano-organ number, "Serenade," by Troselli. Mrs. Fowler gave a musical reading, "Foolish Questions," accompanied by Mrs. Hartman. Mr. Engel played a violin solo, "Mexicana," by Musin. President Cossentine, in his speech, welcomed each student and invited them to visit his office frequently. Dean Dick read the minutes of the first faculty meetings ever held at Union. From notes of subsequent meetings held during the first year we learned that air-mail is nothing new, but was well established fifty years ago. The program closed with a vocal solo by Mr. Miller, "Thanks Be To God," by Dickson.

Dormitories Plan "Open Night" Hikes

Plans for entertainment on the "open" evening of September 26 call for two hikes.

The girls plan to "break in" the new fireplace by eating their supper around it. Then, if the weather permits, they will hike about a mile and gather around an open fire to sing favorite songs and listen to stories.

The plans of the boys call for a six mile hike to Pioneer Park. In the park there will be a marshmallow roast and program after which the boys will retire for a night's sleep under the stars. In the morning those who do not return for work will cook breakfast and play games before hiking back to the college.

PRESIDENT E. E. COSENTINE

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME---

To serve and to conserve are the chief tasks of our college this year. As Union begins its fifty-second year of service for the youth of the middle-west, its conviction of its responsibilities and opportunities were never clearer. With our nation at war, war has become the occupation and pre-occupation of most people. As a result of this war, Union College has come face to face with many realistic problems.

Union College is training for the future leadership of society. In the midst of the titanic struggle, mandated education will not meet the need. Only in the Christian College can real leaders, with the Bible as their guide, be able to understand and direct the ways of men.

Conditions may change, but Union College's fundamental purpose will remain the same. It will conform to the Divine plan through war and peace, for its objectives will not change. We know that "Whatever is done at His command may be done in His strength."

World confusion only strengthens the importance of christian education. Our college is an arsenal of offense and defense against the powers of evil.

Time is short! The hour is late! You, who are here in Union College, are indeed fortunate. You are

(Continued on page 3)

SENIOR CLASS '42 SCATTERS

Our classmates, the seniors of '42, are scattered all over the U. S. from Pittsburgh to Loma Linda and from the Canadian border to the Texico Conference. Beyond a doubt they have been thinking about us this week and wishing they were back at Union, but that privilege is not theirs. Their work is calling them elsewhere, and as far as we know this is where they are and what they are doing:

Clarence Duffield — Intern in Minnesota Conference.

Francis Wernick, Mary Sue Huffhines-Wernick — Effort in Rugby, North Dakota.

Mercedes Bernal, William Bernal — Waiting at Brownsville, Texas, for a plane to South America.

Rendall Caviness, Virginia Huerngardt-Caviness — Teaching ten grade school in Des Moines, Iowa.
Fabian Meier—Preceptor at Oak Park Academy, Nevada, Iowa.

Reynolds Hoffman — Intern in Texas Conference.

Curtis Barger — Intern in Nebraska Conference.

Neal Becker, Rosa Lee Hassenplug-Becker—Intern in North Dakota Conference.

(Continued on page 2)

Bresee Accepts Army Chaplain Position

Mr. Floyd E. Bresee, principal of Union College Academy, has been granted leave of absence to become a U. S. army chaplain. He begins his services as first lieutenant at Harvard University September 28.

Mr. Bresee is an alumnus of Union College and received his Master's degree from the University of Nebraska, and also had a year's study for his doctorate. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

Beginning his ministry in 1918, he served as pastor of the Huron, South Dakota, and the Sioux City, Iowa, Seventh-day Adventist churches. For ten years he, with Mrs. Bresee, worked in South America as a missionary in administrative capacity. Since 1937 he has been connected with Union College. Mrs. Bresee will accompany him to Harvard.

448 REGISTER FOR 1942-43 SCHOOL YEAR

Last year's enrollment record was broken by Monday morning as 448 students completed preliminary registration. According to the figures in the office of the business manager, 403 were college students and 45 were classified as academy students.

The dormitory deans state that approximately 60 per cent of the students in the school homes are new this year.

For a list of students thus far enrolled see page 2. Names of late registrants will be published later.

Superintendent of College Press Heads Research Group

John B. Krauss, superintendent of the Union College Press has accepted the chairmanship of the Research Commission of the International Association of Printing House Craftsmen. The commission is responsible for securing the latest data on material and equipment in the printing industry, and for gathering information on new methods of printing. The Honorable Augustus Giegengack, who is now public printer for the United States Government, was the first to hold this office, which was established in 1937.

Mr. Krauss is also president of the Omaha Craftsmen club, the largest printing club in Nebraska, and is vice-president of the Ben Franklin club of printers in Lincoln. He holds an honorary membership in the Boston Society of Printers.

Besides his local activities, Mr. Krauss is a member of two very

Future

Friday, September 25
7:15 Sunset
7:45 Vespers
Sabbath, September 26
9:45 Sabbath School
11:00 Church Service
1:45 Y. P. M. V.
8:15 Social entertainment

UNION COLLEGE LIBRARY
LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Clock Tower

Published every Wednesday, 10:30 a. m., and every month during the summer by Union College under the auspices of the department of Journalism. Subscription rate: Mailed, one dollar per year; unmailed, seventy-five cents a year.

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Lincoln, Nebraska, April 5, 1911, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1897. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized June 17, 1921.

EDITORIAL COUNCIL

Editor-in-Chief	ARLENE CHURCH '43
Associate Editor	ELDON DICK '44
Associate Editor	LORRAINE DAVIS '46
Make-up Editor	HARROLD LICKEY '45
Literary Adviser	JERRY L. PETTIS '38

BUSINESS STAFF

President and Business Manager	NORMAN KROGSTAD '43
Secretary-Treasurer	MORNA LAQUIER '45
Circulation Manager	HAROLD WERNICK '44
Assistant Circulation Manager	EILEEN MAYBERRY '45
Advertising Manager	EDWARD NORDSTROM '44
Business Adviser	H. C. HARTMAN '21

Typist: Esther Groom '43, Prudence Ortner '46, Jane Kivachuck '46, Jean Rees '45, Valerie Ware '45

Lock The Barn . . .

Often when semester grades are handed out students are heard to gasp or sigh and quite fervently make a resolution for the remaining portion of the year. Such resolutions come too late. It is a case of locking the barn after the horse has been stolen. Of course they are better than not at all for there are other horses in the barn.

Nevertheless it is wise to make your resolutions now—and having made them to keep them. Many a college career has been marred by a little freshman folly. A little carelessness sowed in the forepart of the year brings a harvest of grief in the latter part.

It is to be hoped that no one will forget that he is to prove himself worthy of the label "a college man."

Resolutions made and kept today bring satisfaction and success tomorrow.

DEAN DICK, Guest Editorial

Let's Watch It . . .

Union College students are a very unified group. Is it loyalty, timidity, or fear of being different, that causes them to follow the leader? By this time you've noticed the tendency for us to gather in the rear of the assembly halls, and the one who dares to sit in front is considered a maverick. When any nominating committee report is read, there is no brave soul to call "question;" we sit in a hushed body life deaf mutes.

On the Sabbath, the one day of the seven when we should be in complete accord, this strange influence seems to weaken. It is very distracting for the Sabbath School officers to sit on the platform and watch a number of shadowy forms tip-toeing in the halls. Because of lighting conditions the identity of these late-comers largely remains a mystery and they disturb relatively few people. The students who bravely come in tardy cause embarrassment for themselves and inconvenience for others. Still, it's "better late than never."

By Monday chapel we are all in working order. We listen respectfully to the opening exercises, especially the announcements, all the time wondering who the speaker of the morning is to be. At last he is announced, and with polite introductory remarks from him, and a very noticeable rustle of books and notebooks from the students as they prepare to study or write letters, chapel is under way.

At ten-twenty a bell rings and with one accord about a third of the students disappear—they dive for their books which are on the floor.

Now that bell is a signal to the speaker, not to us. There is no cause for alarm, no reason to run. In just five more minutes we will be duly dismissed.

Please! Can't we exert our individuality, our self-control and eliminate that ten-twenty dive for books?

A. N. C.

Seniors Scatter

Margaret Blue—Attending University of Nebraska.

Helen Carpenter—Teaching in Onaway Jr. Academy, Onaway, Michigan.

Ramon Cronk—Intern in Kansas Conference.

Vernon Dunn—Attending University of Nebraska.

Edwin Gibb—Colporteur Intern. Missouri Conference.

Maynard Pitchford—Colporteur Intern, Wyoming Conference.

Bob Fuller—Intern in Iowa Conference.

Perry Green—Colporteur Intern in Kansas Conference.

Bill Grotheer—Intern in Texico Conference.

Obie Hicks—Studying medicine in Loma Linda, California.

Ethel Hartzell—At home in Minnesota.

Marge Hight—Stenographer in Texas Conference Office.

Mary Hindmarsh—Registrar of Home Study Institute, Washington, D. C.

Herman Kicenski—Studying medicine in Denver, Colorado.

Gladys Moore—Teaching church school at Ft. Worth, Texas.

Mildred Page—Teaching in a ten grade school in Pittsburgh.

Lloyd Pruitt—In the army.

Marie Sanders—Biology laboratory assistant at Union.

Kenneth Wenberg—Canvassing in Casper, Wyoming.

Aletha Pfeiffer-Knowlton—At home in Lincoln.

Hampton White—Teaching a ten grade school in Burlington, Iowa, and has charge of a district.

Russian and Urdu Offered

"What is this Urdu language like anyway?" "Why do they teach Russian here? Is it hard to learn or easy?" are questions students entering Union College this year are asking one another. A few words of explanation might help some to enroll in the Urdu or Russian class with the prospect of later using the language in a mission field.

Travelers and missionaries from India, China, and the East Indies tell us "Asia is awake." Indeed, God's hand is in it all, and He expects us to use this little time of enforced rest from labor in foreign lands to better sharpen our weapons for the last great final charge to victory. Time is short! We may never again have years to spend in language study before taking up our work in China, India, Arabia, Persia, Japan, and Russia. We cannot see the future, but it does seem that this is a God-given opportunity to prepare for service.

Opportunity is knocking. Will you turn her away?

OUR STUDENT ROSTER

Aaby, Ogden
Adams, Laurice
Albers, LeRoy
Alexander, Edyth Mae
Alexander, Herbert
Alexenko, Stacia
Allen, Charles
Anderson, Lynette
Andersen, Milo
Andrews, Patricia
Ashlock, J. Franklin
Atwood, Olivett
Babcock, Roland
Bachman, Martha
Bailey, Carl
Baker, Betty Ann
Baker, Woodrow
Barr, Wilma
Bartel, Clarence
Bates, Donald
Bates, Milton
Beckner, Carolyn
Berbohm, Irma Faye
Betts, Mavis
Betts, Rolene
Bliss, Helen
Boggs, Belva
Boggs, Juanita
Bonjour, Desa
Bovey, Venessa
Bowers, Jack
Boyd, John
Boyd, Larry
Brenneise, Ehud
Brown, Dorothy
Brown, Gladys
Burr, Harold
Burr, Mrs. Harold
Carle, Gordon
Carmichael, Lawrence
Carter, Jean
Caviness, Mildred
Caviness, Moneta
Chapman, Myrtle
Chapman, Wilbur
Chase, James
Chilson, Kathleen
Christensen, Williard
Clark, Carl
Conger, Robert
Cope, Kenneth Coy, Hugh
Christensen, Geraldine
Christian, Alton
Church, Arlene
Cleek, Earl
Clifford, Haziell
Cobb, Eileen
Compton, Robert
Crofoot, Francis
Cunningham, Frances
Dale, Rodney
Davenport, Glenn
Davis, Alta
Davis, Genevieve
Davis, James
Davis, Lorraine
Dick, Eldon
Douma, Madeleine
Dedeker, George
Deitrickson, Eunice
Draper, Naoma
Duffloth, Delphia
Dunning, Carolyn
Dupper, Paul
Dutcher, Frank
Eastin, Margueriette
Eccles, Floyd
Edwards, Robert
Eckerman, Roy
Ehrhardt, Laurel
England, Geraldine
England, Mercedes
Eiseman, George
Erickson, Avis
Falbisaner, George
Feeback, Paul
Fenning, Eugene
Finnell, Herbert
Firth, Robert
Frederickson, Maurice
Flotmann, Ina
Follett, Phyllis
Frederickson, Lorraine
French, Wayne
Gardner, Christine
Genetti, Elizabeth
George, William
Gibb, Earl
Gladden, Donalee
Goelitzer, Sarah Jane

Grimstad, Evelyn
Groom, Esther
Groome, Robert
Grundset, Pearl
Gusso, Wayne
Guy, Peggy Joe
Hagelgantz, Addie
Hayen, Russel
Hagenberg, Charles
Halvorson, Evelyn
Hampton, Charles
Hanson, Violet
Hart, Olive
Hartman, Marceline
Haas, Gideon
Hays, Virginia
Heft, Evelyn
Heglund, Vernon
Hehn, Albert
Heideman, Betty
Heinrich, Oscar
Hickman, Maurice
Hill, Herbert
Hill, Marietta
Hill, Marjorie
Hohlier, Bonnie
Howard, Walter
Huston, Marjorie
Huston, Merle
Holbrook, Delmar
Hunt, Virginia
Irelan, Betty Lou
Jackson, Elmer
Jackson, Mary Jane
Jepson, Clayton
Johnson, Clifford
Johnson, Elaine
Johnson, Elwood
Johnson, Helen Johnson, James
Johnson, Millard
Johnson, Milton
Johnston, Oliver
Joice, Paul
Jones, Lester
Jones, Eleanora
Jorgensen, Gilbert
Keene, Betty
Kellogg, Edna
Kemper, Jeanette
Kemper, Paul
Kennedy, Loree
Kier, Eris
Kimmel, Peggy
Kivashuk, Jane
Klein, Marie
Korgan, Julius
Kosfeld, Ruth
Kougl, Adel
Kravig, Paul
Krogstad, Goldie
Krogstad, Norman
Kunsmann, Herbert
Kynell, Betty
Lamb, Juanita
Lantry, Jay
Lauener, Loris
Laurence, Warren
Lausten, Kathy
Lawson, Darlene
Leeper, Louise
Lehman, Susan
Lemmon, Margaret
Lenz, Darleen
Leonhardt, Earl
Lequir, Morna
Lessley, Dorothy
Lewis, James
Liane, Gladys
Lickey, Charles
Lickey, Harrold
Liebelt, Bennie
Lockert, Lloyd
Lockert, Sylvia
Lockwood, Marion
Loewen, Loretta
Logan, Earlyne
Logan, Josephyne
Lohman, Virginia
Long, Don
Longfellow, Rodney
Longfellow, Veta Mae
Longware, Thomasine
Lorenz, Oliver
Lumper, Victor
Lyon, Joyce
MacLean, George
Maddox, Ronald
Maddox, Mrs. Ronald
Magdanz, Anna
Magnusen, Carol

Mantz, Lillian
 Martin, Galen
 Martin, Vivian
 Massey, Sylvia
 Matsumura, Ruth
 Mayberry, Eileen
 McAfee, Bobbie
 McCumber, Merwin
 McWilliams, Genevieve
 Meyers, Vivian
 Milan, Betty Lou
 Miller, Deward
 Miller, Harold
 Miller, Patricia
 Mitchel, Ruth
 Montgomery, Lowell
 Moore, Dorothy
 Moore, Wayne
 Morikone, Goro
 Morris, Thayer
 Myres, Kathleen
 Nash, Don
 Nazareus, Oliver
 Neff, Esther, Mrs.
 Neff, Wilbur
 Neher, Marianne
 Neil, Albert
 Nelson, Erma
 Nelson, Leland
 Noland, Bill
 Nolton, Virginia
 Nordstrom, Edward
 Norman, Chester
 Neuharth, Dorothy
 Neuharth, Lillian
 Olson, Blodwyn
 Olson, Carl
 Olson, Wayne
 Ortner, Harriette
 Ortner, Prudence
 Otter, Gordon
 Parker, Lemoine
 Parker, Lenora
 Parker, Winslow
 Pate, Virginia
 Payne, Marcus
 Pearson, Ivan
 Pelton, Frances
 Pelton, Inez
 Peters, Ella
 Pierson, Merlin
 Pogue, James
 Pogue, Vida
 Pound, Ira
 Pride, Farrel
 Pruett, Estol
 Prusia, Evelyn
 Rahn, Lawrence
 Ramesbothom, Ruby
 Ramsey, James
 Ramsey, Wayne
 Rankin, William
 Reck, Larewe
 Reed, Dorothy
 Reeder, Mabuta
 Rees, Jean
 Reynolds, Noble
 Rich, Melba
 Rich, Melvin
 Ritter, Donald
 Rogers, Ernest
 Rose, David
 Rose, Etna
 Rosenthal, Shirley
 Roth, Bernice
 Rowland, Julia Jone
 Ruf, Esther
 Russell, Sue
 Sample, Melvin
 Scaggs, Everett
 Scheidman, J. Dean
 Scheresky, Grace
 Schmidt, Ella
 Schmidt, Mary Jane
 Schneider, Thayne
 Schwab, Jean
 Schumann, Merritt
 Seitz, Charles
 Shafer, Edwin
 Shafer, Everett
 Shaner, Anna
 Shaull, Dorothy
 Sherbondy, George
 Sherrard, Harriette
 Sherrig, Evelyn
 Sims, Anita
 Skinner, Elaine
 Smith, Alvin
 Smith, Ora
 Smith, Ross
 Smith, Warren
 Soper, Arthur
 Sorenberger, Evangelyne
 Sorensen, Herman
 Spanos, Georgianna
 Spanos, William
 Stangl, Frank

Steinke, Ruth
 Stevens, James
 Stiegelmeier, Jeune
 Stexens, Irene
 Stickney, Lorraine
 Stohler, Ann
 Taylor, Eleanor
 Thompson, Leona
 Thompson, A. Mildred
 Thompson, Mildred Irene
 Thrall, Dorothy
 Thrall, Lois
 Torkelson, Agnes
 Torkelson, Oscar
 Travis, Marion
 Turner, Claude
 Vercio, Raymond
 Von Dornum, Marjorie
 Voyles, Ernest
 Wahlen, Ernest
 Wall, Wendell
 Wallace, Sterling
 Ware, Valerie
 Weddle, Jefferson
 Weikum, Albert
 Wernick, Harold
 Wernick, Merle
 Westerbeck, Louise
 Widmer, Ruben
 Wiedemann, Martin
 Wiedemann, Rosella
 Williams, Ivan
 Wilmot, Dick
 Wilson, Enid
 Wilson, John
 Wiltse, Dolores
 Wiltse, Glenn
 Wiltse, Ruth
 Wines, Edward
 Wing, Ray
 Winston, Joseph
 Woensner, Merlin
 Wood, Audra
 Wood, Marcedene
 Woods, Adrian
 Woolard, Maceo
 Yanamura, Kibuyo (Mrs.)
 Yarwood, Betty
 Yoshimoto, Gertrude
 Youngs, Leslie
 Zegarra, Teodoro
 Zehm, Edith
 Zweigle, Chester
 Zytkoske, Al

WOULD I ACCEPT?

Would I accept a mission call
 To work in foreign land,
 And leave the pleasant comforts
 here,
 To toil with heart and hand?

Beyond a thrilling ocean trip
 Come years of lonely toil,
 With all the glamour thrown aside,
 Far off from friends so loyal.

With all the rigors of this war
 To make the going hard,
 With chance of failure facing me,
 And loved ones fair to guard,—

In face of this, stop now and think,
 Would I accept a call
 To bring the message to the world
 By giving it my all?

No greater love has any one
 Than gives his life for man,
 To work with all his heart and soul
 In far off heathen land.

Our Lord expects us to respond
 By going forth abroad
 And pointing sinners to the cross
 Before returns our God.

—George MacLean

PRESIDENTIAL TRIP

President E. E. Cossentine, newly elected president of Union College, left the college early last Wednesday afternoon, September 16, at the advice of the college board to go to Washington, D. C., on an important business trip.

Improvements In College Library

Several new things have been added to the library recently and will be of service to library patrons during the present school year.

Just before the close of the last school year, Union College received a gift of over a thousand phonograph records from the collection of the late Mr. Carl Simon of Missouri. Mr. Simon had always expressed the desire to give these records to the college. The library purchased a radio-phonograph player so as to make the records available. The complete plan for use of the player under the librarian's supervision has not been worked out yet. Suggestions for a music appreciation hour several times a week are being considered.

A newspaper rack added to the reference room furniture was made by Willard Christensen during the summer. Three daily newspapers are received and displayed.

A book-drop has been built into the east door of the library building to accommodate persons returning books outside of library hours.

Some of the other new furnishings at the library are: two book-trucks, a dictionary stand for the reserved reading room, and venetian blinds for the librarian's office.

Welcome

(continued from page 1)

privileged above most others. Now make use of that privilege as never before. Welcome the opportunities offered you to build your life to serve, and be ready for the call of God when it comes to you.

To those who are not here, plan to be here the second semester, for there is no time to lose.

Krauss Researcher

(Continued from page 1)

select societies, the Society of Typographical Arts of Chicago, having a membership of two hundred in the United States, and the Typhophiles of New York City. Many men of note are among its members, such as Fred W. Goudy, foremost type designer of the world and Bruce Rogers, producer of the famous Lectern Bible, and is an outstanding book designer.

J. B. Krauss came to Union in 1940. For nineteen years he was superintendent of the Emmanuel Missionary College Press at Berrien Springs. He held the same position with the Atlantic Union College press at South Lancaster, Massachusetts.

Although Mr. Krauss has spent the greater part of his life in the printing industry, he is still as enthusiastic about it as though it were a newly discovered business. His hobby is collecting rare and special editions of books. He has several volumes of limited editions and some outstanding literature and printing which he values very highly.

Getting Acquainted

At the beginning of every year, Union College has an epidemic of name-learning. All the new students and faculty members try to become acquainted with all the old students and faculty members.

Different methods are used for making people know each other. There is the traditional handshake; the special social gatherings are designed to broaden one's circle of friends. But it is always several weeks or even months before everyone knows who everyone else is.

None has tried yet the best means of helping campus people know each other; that would be to have all wear a card with their name on it in black permanent ink! These cards should be worn for at least a week. Of course, most of the people on the campus would feel that they were now inmates of a penal institution where each is given a number or similar marking. But this feeling should be overcome by the satisfaction of knowing that everyone knows his or her friends.

Why don't we start a campaign to properly designate all persons connected with the campus? It would hasten that "big, happy family" feeling.

Girls Do It Again At Union College

During the past summer, Kappa Theta, North Hall girls' club, with the help of Dean Pearl L. Rees, sponsored the building of an outdoor fireplace in the grove back of North Hall.

With wheelbarrows, hoes, rakes and other equipment borrowed from the power house, Evelyn Halverson, Sue Russell Marcedene and Audra Wood, Miss Rees, and others worked early in the morning to clear the site for the fireplace. The girls' work involved cutting down the weeds, leveling the ground, and hauling dirt to fill a gully. The actual masonry was done by Willard Christensen according to plans furnished by Miss Rees.

Committee Elected

On Friday, September 18, a nominating committee consisting of James Chase, Arlene Church, Violet Hanson, and Charles Lickey was elected by blind ballot by the student body of Union College. This committee with the counsel of Dean E. N. Dick who represents the faculty on this committee will function during the entire school year 1942-43. All nominees for major offices of the school, such as Sabbath School, Missionary Volunteer Society, Clock Tower, and the Golden Cords, are submitted to the student body by reports from this committee.

HOLMES TO HEAD UNION'S ACADEMY

Professor A. D. Holmes has been selected as acting principal of the Union College academy, to fill the vacancy left by F. E. Bresee, who will leave the latter part of this week for the armed services of this country.

Mr. Holmes has been on the college and academy faculty for seven years. Now, in addition to acting principal of the academy, he is director of the secondary teachers training in the college.

Former academy principal, Mr. Bresee, has accepted an army commission as first lieutenant, and will be chaplain in the United States army.

Another change in the academy faculty is the addition to the teaching staff of Mr. J. Christensen and Mr. E. E. Hagen. Mr. Christensen is working toward his Master's degree and has had two years' experience in academy teaching previous to his coming here. Mr. Hagen will teach Bible classes and plans to complete the requirements for his Master's degree in history by next spring.

The Union College academy is happy to welcome these two new instructors to the school.

Kleiman Whips The Rubber Shortage

Thanks to the ingenuity of Mr. Kleiman of the power and maintenance department, a tremendous problem has been solved at Union College. Within the past week Mr. Kleiman made a tire for the farm pick-up by using the hub from an old wheel, a circular piece of sheet iron, five thicknesses of boards, and the middle strip of an old rubber tire. If this one proves to be successful, which it is doing quite satisfactorily so far, he is going to make more tires after the same manner for the remaining wheels. In fact, the second tire is already under construction.

The farm and dairy pick-up had come to the place where it could no longer be driven because of the tire situation. But Mr. Kleiman proved that necessity is the mother of invention by fashioning a man-made wheel to take the place of a new rubber tire which is impossible to obtain anymore. He welded a circular band of flat sheet iron to the hub of an old wheel. Then onto this he bolted five thicknesses of one-inch boards in order to make it the normal size of a wheel. After he had cut out the outside rim of an old rubber tire, he fitted this onto the outer edge of the boards thus making the completed wheel.

The tires may be wearing out, but the pick-up is still running, and will continue to run as long as the new tires shall prove satisfactory.

School Mom Writes Epistle

I want you to know that I'm writing this letter for pure amusement. Lots of times when you write letters it's because you feel you ought to. But tonight I can see very plainly that my duty lies over there on the table with my half-completed lesson plans.

Teaching wouldn't be quite so bad if you could kiss the little darlings good-bye at four o'clock. But when you have to put them to bed and get them up and see that they take their baths . . . To say nothing of study period and not enough books to go around.

I teach from 9 till 3:30 and have 14 girls. I'm not the same girl. Really I look at least 25. Wish I could take another class in creative writing. Maybe if I survive this year I'll start buying a piece of land. Farming is an honorable occupation and not this nerve-wracking. Won't it be lovely when Christmas comes? I shall do nothing useful.

When your book comes out, Mrs. Hagstotz, I want to order a copy of it. You must autograph it. Who knows when I'll ever know another live author? What kind of an advanced composition class do you have this year? I suppose it improves every year.

Isn't grading papers a pain in the neck? Another one is the sponsorship of the school paper, which I would not mind writing myself, but which it is hard to get anybody else to write.

I think the country up here is beautiful, but I'd sure like to see the good old dust bowl. Teaching isn't so bad; it's being a good example 24 hours a day that gets wearisome.

Helen Carpenter

Dean Delivers Activities Talk

Introducing his speech on extra-curricular activities in chapel, September 18, Dean E. N. Dick quoted from the poet Emerson, "What we do not call education is more gracious than what we call so."

The dean listed some factors outside the classroom which make for a successful student. Care in choosing friends, close contact with teachers, cultivation of a fine personality, cultural growth, providing for some leisure time, and development of a spirit of loyalty are among the important extra-curricular activities listed.

Dr. Dick key-noted his first chapel talk by saying, "Through friendships, through books, through solitude and society alike, through long autumn walks, and cheerful fireside chats in winter, we weave the fabric which we call a liberal education."

WE'RE IN THE ARMY NOW

Pvt. Ernest L. Pearson
Fort Sheridan, Illinois

My barracks are only about two blocks from a lake in which I go swimming. I surely like swimming here, although the water is pretty cold.

I came here August 1 and started work right away on an emergency job. I have been on duty here at the hospital twelve hours every night. My patient is a captain who has "gone nuts." He is a fine young fellow, not much older than I am, but he just cracked up. He has to be watched day and night to keep him from running away. I think he will be moved to another hospital very soon.

Pvt. Ben Nelson

I got transferred to Fort Sill the same day that I got your letter. This place is so much better than Camp Barkley that I thought I had found a Utopia in the army, if that could be possible. Here we have grass and flowers around the barracks and around all of the hospital wards, which makes things very homey. We have all kinds of recreations here. There is a golf course on the post and we don't have to pay to play. We have several swimming pools and they are free, too.

Richard Hopkins is here at Ft. Sill. I don't know whether you knew him or not. He ran around with Paul Kravig and Earl Mears. He is a M. P.

Sgt. Chester Wahlen
Fort Mammouth
Red Bank, New Jersey

Time has passed so rapidly, and here it is time for school to begin. How I wish it were possible for me to be there! Don't misunderstand me. Quite a bit has happened since early this spring, but all strikes have been in my favor.

My address is explanation enough of my present location. In fact, I have been here since the first of May. My work is very interesting, and I am finally in a position where I not only take orders but give them. Guess I've had a streak of good luck. The male nurse who was in charge of this ward was transferred by request for insubordination. I was asked to come in here, and was given a private room with bath right here on the ward, which automatically excuses me from reveille and the regular army inspections.

Last week Ross Rice and two other S. D. A. boys were transferred to this detachment. We apparently have made a good impression for the Company Commander was happy to accept their transfer and give Saturdays off. Ed Carlson and Walter Thompson are stationed about thirty-five miles from this post.

Pvt. Donald Altman

Theoretically I'm enjoying army life, but personally I'm going to be one of many happy fellows when this war is over. It won't be so bad after the basic course is over, but if you've had M. C. C. a lot of this is boring.

There's a lot of dry humor in this Army life. The other day they marched us out into a field and staged a tent pitching demonstration. The "non-coms" were the demonstrators. When they unrolled the tent they found it had been rolled up wrong. After driving stakes (some of them driven wrong because of the nervous tension), two of them put the pole in its socket and hoisted the tent. The other two forgot to tie the guy ropes, and as the two inside started out, the tent came down on their heads. The crowd roared and the lieutenants stroked their chins and grinned.

The first Friday night I was here there were about twenty outside men at our vespers. Last week I contacted a fellow who used to be an Adventist but didn't ask for his "O". He said he didn't want to be a hypocrite so he made no profession at all. He said he thought he'd go to meetings, but later he got "cold feet" and backed out. I hope he comes yet.

New Savants Join Faculty

Teaching at Union College this semester are six new faculty members, one who has returned from leave of absence.

President E. E. Cossentine, newly elected president of Union College, comes to the middle west from La Sierra College in southern California. President Cossentine was president of La Sierra College for twelve years. Previous to that time he spent many years as school administrator in New Zealand, Australia, and other parts of the United States.

Dean E. N. Dick, Ph.D., returned from leave of absence, where he has been working for the General Conference on the Medical Cadet Corps Training which he founded. An alumnus of Union College, he has, since 1930, been chairman of History and Political Science departments and director of summer school sessions, besides developing the Bureau of Vocational Guidance and Teachers Placement.

Professor Harold A. Miller, who is chairman of the music department, came to us from Washington Missionary College, Washington, D. C. Previous to that he was head of the music department at Southern Junior College, Collegedale, Tennessee. He received his M.Mus. from Eastman School of Music.

Mrs. I. F. Blue, instructor in Urdu, and returned missionary from India, studied in Vincent Hill Jr. College in Northern India. Besides Urdu, she can also teach Hindu based on Sanskrit.

Mrs. Alexander Ivanoff, Russian teacher, is a native of Vladivostok, where she was trained in a teacher's college. She taught in the Sungari Mission in Harbin, Manchukue from 1924 to 1936, and has taught Russian to Koreans, Chinese, and Japanese.

Miss Helen Hyatt, critic teacher for demonstration elementary school, taught in Helderberg College, school for Europeans, in South Africa from 1929 to 1940. She was on the unfortunate Zam Zam, and arrived in the United States June 20, 1942.

Miss Marie Sanders, biology laboratory assistant, graduated from Union College in 1942. She was in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities for 1941-42 and held many responsible student positions in the activities of the school.

Academy Grows

Fifty-three students have enrolled to date in the Union College academy, which, according to information received from Principal A. D. Holmes, is considerably larger than last year's enrollment. Various locations are represented in the academy group, including students from India, and Fairbanks, Alaska.

Summer Weddings

Love is the only good in the world.
—Browning.

Groom	Bride	Place	Date	At Home
1. Heinrich, Oscar	Pettit, Gladys	Denver, Colo.	June 23,	Lincoln
1. Streeter, Ronald	Saturley, Wanda	Delta, Colo.	August 11,	Shelton Academy
3. Francis, Warren	Follet, Fara	College View	June 3,	Lincoln
4. Cronk, Ramon	Thompson, Lela	Colman, So. Dak.	June 7,	Emporia, Kansas
5. Herr, Earnest	Schmidt, Viola	Bison, Kansas	June 6,	Jamestown, N. Dak.
6. Kier, Eris	Hohensee, Evelyn	Aberdeen, S. Dak.	Aug. 20,	Lincoln
7. Becker, Neal	Hassenpflug, Rosa	Jamestown, N. Dak.	Aug. 19,	Gardar, N. Dak.
8. Krogstad, Norman	Cowles, Eleanor	Cedar Lake, Mich.	June 14,	Lincoln
9. Meier, Fabian	Rudy, Maxine	Watertown, S. Dak.	July 12,	Oak Park Academy
10. Lt. C. Leslie Jensen	Kinding, June	St. Paul, Minn.	July 19,	New Jersey
11. Bartel, Warren	Butherus, Viola	Bride's parent's home	July 26,	Otis, Kansas
12. Loewen, Leland S.	Ochs, Elvira	Glendale, Calif.	Sept. 3,	Loma Linda, Calif.
13. Skinner, Robert	Callender, Zetta	Kansas	Aug. 30,	College Place, Wash.
14. Neff, Wilbur	Schneider, Esther	Hebron, N. Dak.	Aug. 9,	Lincoln
15. Babcock, Rolland	Gilbert, Edna	La Belle, Mo.	June 28,	Lincoln
16. Rasmussen, Geo.	Snyder, Roma Belle	Spokane, Wash.	Aug. 16,	Spokane, Wash.
17. Graves, Jesse	Dickenson, Betty Lou	Clovis, N. Mex.	July 13,	?
18. Dick, Elwin	Jacobs, Fern	La Haye, Kansas	July 26,	Kansas
19. Waggoner, Sharon	Kantz, Marion	Ramona, Calif.	June 20,	Calif.
20. Paulien Gunther	Laus, Ina	Texarkana, Ark.	June 21,	Arkansas
21. Fuller, Bob	Wren, Arleta	Lincoln, Nebr.	May 24,	Iowa
22. Wernick, Francis	Huffines, Mary Sue	Lincoln, Nebr.	May 24,	North Dakota
23. Caviness, Rendall	Huenergardt, Virginia	Lincoln, Nebr.	May 24,	Iowa
24. Knolten, La Moine	Pfeiffer, Aletha	Lincoln, Nebr.	May 24,	Lincoln
25. Miller, Deward	Andrews, Jeanette	Seward, Nebr.	Sept. 3,	Lincoln
26. Cornell, Carlyle	Roth, Genevieve	Topeka, Kansas	June 3,	Lincoln
27. Maddox, Ronald	Johnson, Celia	Lincoln, Nebr.	June 3,	Lincoln
28. Joe Becker	Mavis Ching	Lincoln, Nebr.	May 29,	El Dorado, Kan.
29. Paul Whitlow	Luwana Guy	St. Cloud, Minn.	Sept. 2,	Knoxville, Ia.

Union College students in bold face type.