

Annual Garden Party Held

Under calm evening skies the young women of Union College crowned the Queen of the May, Rocelia Kegley, on the evening of May 16. The North Hall campus, lighted by Japanese lanterns, served as the royal court of coronation. Following the Springtime Song, Branka Bogdanovich welcomed the guests.

Little Jimmie Hooper, bearing the crown, preceded the Queen and Janice Hooper carried the train. Eight attendants accompanied Queen Rocelia to her throne. Maids of honor were Eileen Engeberg and Doreen Cadwallader. The six other attendants were Florence Oss, Betty Jane Glew, June Nickle, Donna Scott, Eleanor Engeberg, and Berle Lockert. The queen and her attendants were chosen by vote of all the girls.

A lovely program, under the direction of Florence Oss and Kay Peterson, was presented by members of the Queen's realm for her honor. From the desert land came Elaine Clevenger singing, "The Desert Song." Agnes Marks represented Toyland as she gave her musical reading, "I've Got a Pain in My Sawdust."

The events poem, written by Ethelyn Orr and read by Myrna Truman, gave to the Queen and her audience, "A Reminiscence of the Year's Activities."

From the Land of the Sky-blue Waters came an Indian Maid, Anna Lee Schander, to sing her song of love, "The Indian Love Call." Five little sailor maids, Jean Bartling, Shirley Burton, Lorraine Waller, Elaine Clevenger, and Nadine Burgeson, honored the Queen in song. "The Song of the Islands" was sung by the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Lorraine Waller. "Three Little Kittens" in the cat bag were represented by Joyce Butherus, Shirley Davis, and Alice Tyler.

From the Land of Dreams came "Wynken, Blynken, and Nod"—Dorothy Glantz, Betty Lou and Barbara Williams, with their sleepy song and reading. Jeanette Hause honored the Queen by playing a violin solo, "Midnight Bells."

Two beautiful maypoles of various pastel colors were wound by several maidens before the lovely Queen Rocelia arose from her throne and wished all a "Good Night."

Doreen Cadwallader wrote the script for the program, and the decorations were under the arrangement of Ivy Jo Larsen.

Shirley Burton gave up-to-the-minute bulletins concerning the coming of the royal procession. (See picture, page two)

Golden Cords Distributed May 19

The 1948 Golden Cords has just made its debut on the campus. Since their distribution Wednesday afternoon, the yearbooks have been the center of attraction on the campus, and pens have been running dry as a result of many autographs. Heretofore, the Golden Cords has been released to the students from two to four days before the close of school. This year it is ahead of schedule. The hard working editor-in-chief, Blossom Church, has spent many days and nights in an effort to make this Golden Cords the best ever, and all agree that she reached the goal. She, along with her associates, can well be proud of the finished product.

The Golden Cords is dedicated to Miss Floda Smith, librarian and instructor in library science.

Several outstanding features are the beautiful modern white and purple covers, "The Days of Our Year," a review of the year's happenings by Morten Juberg (serious or otherwise), the Union College School of Nursing and the interesting "campusology" section.

Alumni Meeting May 29

The Alumni Association of Union College will hold its annual activities and business session on the Union College campus May 29 in conjunction with the graduation exercises of the college.

Outstanding item in the program of the evening will be a ceremony honoring the class of 1898. Several surviving members of that class are to be present and a report of their class will be given by Elder M. E. Kern of Washington, D.C. Activities for this class group are planned to center around "The Rock Pile" on the front campus which has stood as their class memorial since their graduation.

Elder M. V. Campbell, president of the Central Union Conference and chairman of the Union College board, will be the speaker in a Sabbath vesper hour with music planned by Professor C. C. Engel for whose long service to Union College the new music department building was recently named.

The business session will include a welcome by Dr. R. W. Woods, president of the college, a presentation of the class of 1948 by the sponsor, Dr. Everett N. Dick, the annual election of officers, and discussion and vote on proposals previously published and recommended. (Turn to page 4, col. 4)

FALL TERM OFFICERS ELECTED

GOLDEN CORDS TO BE HUNG FOR 19 MISSIONARIES TOMORROW NIGHT

Art Hauck Is Winner In Oratory Contest

The final judging of the temperance oratorical contest, sponsored by the UC chapter of the American Temperance Society, was held in a joint chapel May 18. The three winners were: Art Hauck, first place ($25); Frank Hale, second place ($15); and Jackie Johnston, third place ($10).

Mr. Hauck pictured the debasing influence which liquor has on the human race, and he placed a definite challenge before his hearers in saying, "There is the picture; there is the problem; there is the challenge. What are you going to do about it? Are you going to go on an isolationist picnic, munching away on a false sense of security, salted with appeasement and sandwiched between slices of hopeful and wishful thinking? Or are you going to face the problem squarely?"

The judges were the mayor of Lincoln, Hon. Clarence G. Miles; Rev. Virgil A. Anderson, Associate Pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church; and Elder Leslie Hardinge of Union's theological department.

As he presented a medal to Mr. Hauck, Mayor Miles stated that he subscribed wholly to the sentiments of the speakers, and he also mentioned that he has never touched a drop of liquor in his life.

It is the plan of the Temperance Society to make this oratorical contest an annual occasion.

NURSING DIRECTOR TO VISIT EUROPE

Miss H. Ruth Bunston, School of Nursing director, will sail on the S.S. Marine Jumper for Europe from New York City May 21 (tomorrow). Miss Bunston will make an extended tour of England and the continent to visit outstanding University Schools of Nursing. Appointments for her itinerary will be arranged by the International Council of Nurses in London.

Miss Bunston will also visit her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. McDonald, who live in Germany, where Dr. McDonald is in government service.

Nineteen Golden Cords will be hung Friday night, May 21, for Unionites who have entered foreign missionary service during the past year. The main speaker will be Elder E. D. Dick, secretary of the General Conference and head of the mission board for the denomination.

Faculty members who have been in mission service will be seated on the platform. The cords will be hung by junior and senior class officers. Others who will participate on the program will be Elder A. J. Wearner, Everett Dick, Eileen Mayberry Lantry, E. H. Meyers, Chester Cross, Josephine Griffin Benton, Blossom Church, Dr. Robert W. Woods, Elder J. N. Anderson, a string quartet, ladies' quintet, and the Orpheus Male Chorus.

The nineteen cords will be hung to nine different countries in the two hemispheres. The four cords hung to China will represent Donald Nash, Willis G. Dick, Eleanor Sutton Dick, and Henry Meissner. To Colombia, South America, have gone Eugene Burley, Ruth Chamberlain Burley, and Mackay Christianson. Two will be hung to Panama for Paul Kemper and Vivian Meyers Kemper. One cord will be hung to Argentina for Eva Parker Baerg and two to Honduras for Edward E. Jensen and Nellie Linscott Jensen. Nyasaland Africa, Malaya, and India each claim two also; for Gordon A. Otter and Dorothy Reed Otter to Africa; Henry Peterson and Alice Nelson Peterson to Malaya, and Henry Preston and Luella Coleman Preston to India, and to Trinidad will go a cord for Lulu Leech Manuel.

The Last Word

It takes many people working together to complete an important project successfully. I wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who have worked to make the '47-'48 CLOCK TOWER a worth-while paper. The editors, reporters, and typists have worked faithfully. Miss Virginia Shull has given needed advice and counsel. The business staff, headed by Kent Dickinson, has handled the campaign details, as well as advertising and circulation. The press manager, James Anderson, and his assistants, have been very patient when we have caused them extra work or failed to meet a deadline. And the man-behind-the-scene, Mr. Budd, linotype operator, has made the going easier many times.

We gladly give our positions to the incoming staff. Our issues will soon be forgotten, and yours will be the center of interest. We wish you much success and we are confident that you will produce a bigger and better paper than ever. B.L.W.

We of the CLOCK TOWER staff have held a unique position in student life, for we have had the privilege of reporting and interpreting the events of a school which is God-directed. In our work we have come close to the heart of student life and have felt the pulse-beat of this great institution as it fulfills its mission of training men and women for greater service.

We have been conscious of a marvelous spirit of friendliness; of the tireless efforts of consecrated individuals. Yes, and we have been cognizant of shortcomings here and there (as is witnessed by past editorials.) However, we have matured as a result of our labors this past year and have come to realize more fully that this is God's school, and that we have been honored to work with Him. K.H.

Dear Editor . . .

Dear Editor: We have just completed another student election, only I question the validity of the term election. I don't agree with the way this election was carried out. The two-slate ballot was not satisfactory, but this one-slate "yes" and "no" form was decidedly no improvement over the other system. I think that the election could be taken care of much more satisfactorily in another way. Here is my suggestion. Approximately two months before school is out, the elections should begin, being divided into four sections. First, each organization with the counsel of its sponsor, should compile a list of four names for each office. This list should be given to the nominating committee who in turn would choose two to be placed on a two-slate ballot. Then only one election would be carried on every two weeks. First election: CLOCK TOWER, summer Sabbath school, and summer CLOCK TOWER. Election two: Golden Cords. Election three: temperance, special events, and Sabbath school. Election four: mission band, religious life, and social committee.

This method would permit students with capabilities who did not occupy an office in one election to qualify for a position in another. It would also give a chance for students to be suggested who are the most capable for that particular job.

This system may not be perfect, but I think it is more democratic than the one carried out last Tuesday.

Respectfully yours,
(Signed)

(We need more students like you who take time to think things through and then express their opinion and give concrete suggestions. That's the only way that real progress can ever be made.—Ed.)

The "Clock Tower"

The CLOCK TOWER is a wonderful sheet. It comes out every other week. We're all familiar with the old name plate

And when we see it we think it's late, But if you read the good date line You find it's usually right on time. The campus news is blazoned forth In streamer head and small report. The special weeks get some attention And other things—too many to mention. We always read Anticipation To find future event and station.

News of the stork is easy to find; It puts smiles in the parent's mind. The Letters to the Editor Promoting either peace or war Are sometimes good and sometimes bad But we print 'em—'twould make folk mad

If their fine thoughts ne'er saw the light Of public eye, for cause of right. Editorials? Yes, a few. But I never read them—do you? Once in a while a bit of verse. You thought it was bad! This is worse!

Ads from local merchants are there: Some selling groceries, some cutting hair. Spotlight brings a miscellany, Events both sober and also zany. So keep your subscription. It's only a dollar.

Read all the news, and you'll not holler. Through this paper you gain much knowledge Of goings-on at Union College.

CASA PICA
Linotype Operator

Bicek; treasurer, Paul Curtis; assistant treasurer, Royce Williams.

Sabbath school officers during the summer months will be: superintendents, Larry Burgeson and John Griswell; secretaries, Gerald Williams and Shirley Davis; choristers, Charles Phillips and Glenn Rice; and pianists, Carol Thomson and Donna Burritt.

"Bloo," "Egbert," "K. John," and "Vim" are the characters in the drama. The talk goes something like this:

"Check on the spelling of these names, Egbert."
"Wasn't that article due yesterday, K. John?"
"Vim, will you see what you can do with this?"
"O.K., Bloo."

This conversation may sound a little mystical but it is really everyday chatter in the CLOCK TOWER office. The characters in this drama are the four editors. "Bloo" is Betty Lou Williams, the editor-in-chief; "Egbert" is Einar Berlin, the associate editor; "K. John" is Kenneth Holland, the managing editor; and "Vim" is Virginia Mooney, the assistant editor.

The CLOCK TOWER goes through many stages in its development, the first of these being the planning of the issue. This is done by the editor-in-chief and her three assistants. Assignments are made to the reporters and feature writers with the approximate number of words specified for each writing assignment. Some of the writers have special features that appear regularly in each issue. When these articles are collected, they are edited and rewritten, if necessary. This process takes much time and sometimes nearly gives the editors gray hair. The material is then typed and read for corrections.

Miss Shull, the faculty adviser, gives all material a final check before it is taken to the linotype. Linotype galley proofs are read at the press.

In the meantime the advertising manager or his assistant has secured the specified number of ads.

The dummy takes shape next. The dummy is the name given to a model form of the next issue. The galley proofs are pasted on a previous issue of the CLOCK TOWER in the order they will appear.

The pages are made up at the press and after being checked they are locked up in a form for the press. A final check is given to a press proof and when the corrections have been made, the paper goes to press.

At this point the editors sit back and relax and sometimes almost collapse from lack of sleep from trying to keep up with their studies at the same time. But although the paper has required a large amount of time and effort, we have enjoyed working on it.

With this issue our job with the CLOCK TOWER is completed, and we relinquish the responsibility in favor of a new staff. We have received much enjoyment as well as practical experience from our work and we hope you have enjoyed reading our paper this year.

SIGMA IOTA KAPPA

★ On May 13 Sigma Iota Kappa members were shown pictures on fishing, alligator hunting, and swimming.

★ One evening last week a figure came dashing down the sidewalk toward South Hall. However, the individual was acting very strangely, jumping over the hedges and generally capering around. When someone asked, he was told, "Oh, that is just Eugene Taylor coming back from North Hall."

★ It's an old and worn-out excuse but someone keeps on using it. Mary Como Meyers came walking nonchalantly out of the dining room and at full steam ahead ran right into the door. There were plenty of witnesses for that excuse.

★ Have you noticed the new metal porch furniture at South Hall? The new set contains a glider and four chairs.

★ Joseph Nuseibeh recently arrived from Mount of Olives, Jerusalem, Palestine, to begin studying this summer.

★ This past week colporteur leaders from Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, and South Dakota have been interviewing prospective workers.

★ Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Davis from Manhattan, Kansas, recently visited their son, Charles.

KAPPA THETA

★ The last K.D.L. meetings for the year were held May 5. Lower Division K.D.L. were honored with guests from South Hall and the village. Gerry Thompson gave two humorous readings, Frances Chamberlain sang a vocal solo, followed by another reading by Bill Rankin. Alice Tyler sang the closing thought—"Someone Is Waiting for You."

★ Upper Division K.D.L. was privileged to be entertained by Wayne Hooper. He sang several numbers accompanied by Doralee Kaufman.

★ Many visitors came to North Hall the week end of May 14-16. Among them were Donna Scott's parents from Sunnydale Academy in Missouri, Betty Jane Meier's sister from Oklahoma, and Darlene Fennell's mother. Miss Rees' niece, Mrs. E. E. Pringle, and her son, daughter-in-law and granddaughter from Kansas City, were her guests.

★ Kathleen Robb and Lois Ritchie are both in Lincoln for a vacation from the clinical division of the U.C. School of Nursing in Boulder and Porter.

★ Evelyn Stevenson, a former student, was also here from Denver where she works in the office at the Porter Sanitarium.

★ Valerie Ware, '46, came from Boulder where she works in the office at the Sanitarium.

★ Jane Ogata and Carol Heft, senior nurses in the clinical division, visited their brothers and other friends on the campus May 14-16.

★ Just a thought—but perhaps some of you aren't joining the ranks of those who are getting married this summer because of the same reason Dorothy Glantz gave in class one day. She said that she had too many other weddings to go to so didn't have time to go to her own!

CAMPUS

★ Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodell visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lickey and Clayton Pogue May 14-17. The Rodells live in Jamestown, North Dakota. They are Mrs. Lickey's and Clayton's aunt and uncle.

★ Gloria Olson had a wonderful week end May 7-9 while her folks, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Olson of Minneapolis, were here. She especially enjoyed driving their new Pontiac.

★ May 13 Elder and Mrs. Roger Holly and Mrs. Roy Eckerman and daughter spent the day at Union. At the present time they are living in Council Bluffs. Elder Holly was seeking to find a song director for his evangelistic company.

★ Miriam Heft of Sterling, Colorado, was at Union May 14-16 to see her brother, Carl Heft.

★ Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haas, Phyllis Smith, and Pete Roehl spent May 7-9 in North Dakota. Harry and his wife went to Jamestown to visit his parents. Phyllis and Pete went to Carrington to visit the Smiths.

★ Naomi Snyder with Lila Beatty and Dorothy Miller as her guests visited her home in Beatrice, Nebraska, the week end of May 15.

★ Dr. Everett Watt was the guest of Miss Watt May 5-8. Dr. Watt is practicing dentistry in Coulee Dam, Washington.

★ Hazel and Harold Roll were at Union Sabbath, May 15. Mr. Roll is the treasurer of the Missouri Conference.

★ Janet Campbell's folks drove over from Scottsbluff, Nebraska, in their Chrysler New-Yorker and visited Janet May 8-12.

★ Margaret Pedersen was the guest of Aletha McGirr May 8 and 9.

★ Jackie Horton of Omaha, Nebraska, visited Dick Jester the week end of May 15. Dick had previously spent a week, May 3-9, at his home in Kansas City, Missouri, on business.

★ The library is attempting to keep an up-to-date file of periodicals for reference purposes. To make these a bit more durable, they are bound in volumes. Recently the binders returned 300 of such volumes at one time—a record in quantity and prompt service.

★ Approximately eleven more days remain in the month of May, and then it will be June—a glorious month; and not the least in making it such are the many beautiful brides. In anticipation of the coming weddings, bridal showers have been plentiful. Now, if you've been to one shower you have a rough outline of what all showers are like. Therefore, we will attempt only to mention some of the things which made these various showers different.

At the shower for Marian May and Janette Kemper, held May 2 at Miss Smith's home, the girls each had a small bouquet of flowers. From each stem hung a long streamer telling where the gifts could be found.

★ May 11, Alice Fischer and Phyllis Smith were given a shower at Mrs. Roy Beaman's home. Josephine Benton and Elaine Clevenger furnished readings and songs. Ice cream, cake, and punch were served as refreshments.

★ A little prescription box containing medicine capsules was given to Ermalee Garner at her shower. Within each capsule was a slip of paper telling where the gifts could be found. Cake and punch were served as refreshments.

★ Elaine Clevenger had to burst inflated balloons to find her gifts. Within each balloon was a slip of paper disclosing the place of concealment of a gift.

★ Ruth Pitsch, being a secretarial major, was ordered to take a letter at her shower which brought to mind many interesting events leading up to her engagement. Later, she was asked to do some filing and discovered the gifts concealed in the filing cabinet.

★ Mr. Abel and Mr. Hohensee plan to attend the Westminster Choir School in Princeton, N.J., and the Fred Waring Choir School in Shawnee, Pa. Both sessions will be held late in the summer. Wayne Hooper plans to attend a session of the Rodeheaver music institute at Winona Lake, Indiana. In July Mrs. Abel will attend the convention of the American Guild of Organists in St. Louis.

★ On June 15 Mr. Abel will receive the Master of Music degree from the American Conservatory in Chicago. His thesis is a course in choral conducting suited to Christian education. This thesis will be made into a textbook.

★ The Union College band, under the direction of Raymond Knight Casey, returned May 14 from Enterprise Academy, Enterprise, Kansas. The 75-piece band gave a concert at the academy on the night of May 13.

★ On May 1, Elder R. S. Joyce pointed out the place of music in the church. The following Sabbath, May 8, Elder Leslie Hardinge's subject was the songs of God. Both talks were given in conjunction with the observance of Music Week.

Alumni Meeting

ed by the executive board of the association.

All graduates of Union College, of its academy and persons who have attended classes as much as one school year, are considered alumni and are invited to attend this meeting. The schedule for the May 29 meeting will be as follows: Sabbath vespers 7:30 p.m., business session 8:05 p.m. reunion, refreshments, and program 8:45.

Honorable Mention

If we had time and space there would be a number of things we could put in this honorable mention story. Take, for instance, the Sabbath school conducted by the Veterans' Club on May 8. Joe Espinosa, Vets' Club president, was the leader in planning the special event which included the quiz kids, a group of very young youngsters who answered review questions and also sang "Jesus Is Coming Again" under the direction of four-and-one-half-year-old Ronnie Casey. It was a nice gesture honoring two College View mothers with corsages.

We must mention Anne Evens and her arrangements of worthwhile material on the ad building bulletin boards. Clever idea!

Speaking of bulletin boards, the one in the main lower hall of the library has been very attractively arranged all year.

It is with a feeling of pride that tennis enthusiasts can leave the campus this year. "Yes, sir, we do finally have tennis courts at UC and good ones, too."

And, looking forward to the ordeals of exam week, we give honorable mention in advance to those instructors who take note of the fact that the weather is not conducive to study and that the shorter and simpler the tests are, the better!

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Woods, Wayne Hooper, and the Standard Bearers quartet attended the Oklahoma Youth's Congress at Oklahoma City on May 14-15.

Carl W. Clark, class of '43, has been working as head accountant at the New England Sanitarium and Hospital since 1944. Recently, he and Mrs. Clark moved to Keene, Texas, where he will act as head accountant at Southwestern Junior College.

Attention: All members of Choir I and Choir II. Meet after vespers tomorrow night to have a short rehearsal for 11:30 church service Sabbath.

One of the ways to reach a ripe old age is to stop feeling responsible for the whole human race. The graveyards are full of those who have tried it.

SABBATH MUSIC

Don't miss a special program of Sabbath music at 3:15 in the auditorium Sabbath afternoon. Guest violinist will be Geraldine Kelley of Wesleyan University. Miss Kelley is a Carnegie Hall audition winner and well known to Unionites. Clifton Cowles will be euphonium soloist and Joy Oakvik will sing. Wayne Hooper will direct congregational singing. Also on the program will be the Hub of Harmony, a trombone quartet, trumpet, trio, ladies' trio, and men's quartet.

Be sure if God sends you on stony paths, He will provide you with strong shoes.

SUMMER PLANS

Dr. Woods is planning to attend camp meetings in the following conferences this summer: Wyoming, South Dakota, North Dakota, and Colorado.

Mr. Beaven will attend the Texas and Arkansas-Louisiana camp meetings. He also will teach rhetoric and public speaking at the University of Michigan while working on his doctor's dissertation.

We Give Credit

Albert Pauly has had the responsibility of the financial side of the College Signs Club: pledges, periodic statements, and collections in part. However, Mrs. Baer, church treasurer, has aided much in this part of the work, too. These should have been mentioned in our note of appreciation in the last issue. Both have helped most loyally.

We Point With Pride

CHARLES WHITE

Charles has quite an affinity for the Union College campus, having taken all his schooling here beginning with the first grade. He will soon begin work as a ministerial intern in the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference.

MORTEN JUBERG

Morten Juberg, a senior ministerial student from South Dakota, has spent four years at Union and will graduate with a major in religion and a history minor. Morten is kept busy with an evangelistic campaign in Seward. Mort's wife is the former Lorraine Davis. Last year he was editor-in-chief of the CLOCK TOWER and was selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

DEL PARKINS

Del is a registered nurse, having graduated from the Washington Sanitarium. She says she is a great lover of sports: skiing, tennis, skating, and "anything that has action." Del plans to spend the summer in Denver working at Porter Sanitarium and attending the University of Denver. Next fall she will assist in the physical education department at Union.

NATALIE OLSON

Natalie has taught school for five years in Colorado and says that teaching is a wonderful profession because it makes one feel that he is helping the youth. She is getting married in July to Elmer Shultz, and both plan to teach in the same school. Natalie has majors in education and biology and a minor in religion.

FRANK SHAFFER

Hailing from Bison, South Dakota, comes a future M.D. Frank is majoring in biology with minors in chemistry and religion. With a hopeful eye turned toward Loma Linda and a grade point to back it up, Frank soon hopes to be changing his residence to sunny California. Photography as his number one hobby also includes being secretary-treasurer of the Photography Club.

JOHN MICHAEL BAKER

The southern atmosphere is predominant in John's home. His hobby is art and wood carving, his goal an M.A. degree. Besides meeting his wife at Keene, he acquired experience as business manager of the annual and as secretary of boy's club. He hopes to be a businessman in the South.

IRENE TIMOTHY

From Max, North Dakota, comes Irene Timothy. She spends most of her time in the science hall, where she is biology laboratory instructor, or in Engel Hall, where she plays an active part in various musical organizations. Irene is CLOCK TOWER music editor, prayer band leader, and church deaconess. Dressmaking is one of her hobbies. Her cheery smile will be an asset to her as a teacher.

GLADYS MOLL

Tall, always-smiling Gladys Moll is originally from Texas, but now that her home is in Michigan, she "guesses Texas doesn't count." She is graduating with a major in religion and minors in home economics and music. Gladys doesn't have any definite dislikes, but she greatly enjoys "fancy salads all fixed up fine." As for favorite pastimes, tramping in the fields and sewing hold first place. She plans to be married in the fall, after graduating in the summer.

MARJORIE WEARNER

Our nomination for the "most disarming smile" goes to Marjorie. As one person said, "She can't help having a lovely personality with a father like Elder Wearners." Her birthplace is St. Helena, California. She has attended La Sierra College and Southwestern Junior College but says she likes Union best. According to Marjorie, her plans for the future are quite indefinite.

Dedicatory Service

Held for Colporteurs

In his dedicatory sermon to the student colporteurs May 15, Elder J. D. Smith, president of the Northern Union, said that two things should be outstanding in the life of every Christian. The first is to do the will of Him that sent us, and the second is to finish His work. Unless a task is finished it is useless. The students who plan to canvass during the summer were seated on the platform. At the close of the sermon Mr. Beaven offered the dedicatory prayer. Present for the service were Elders P. D. Gerrard, C. G. Cross, and R. E. Bowles.

LINCOLNITES VISIT CAMPUS

On May 9 Union College held the first campus Open House since the war. During the afternoon demonstrations were offered by the physics and chemistry departments, a music recital was held in Engel Hall, and an open air concert was given by the band. Visitors toured the newer buildings, the music and science halls, the library, the auditorium and the furniture factory.

ELDER GIDLUND OF SWEDEN IS VISITOR

Elder C. T. Gidlund, principal of the S.D.A. junior college in Sweden, spoke in chapel May 11. He is now studying in the Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. Elder Gidlund said that the work in Sweden is progressing nicely and that plans are being laid for a senior college which will serve all the Scandinavian countries.

Elder Gidlund visited several days and renewed his acquaintance with Business Manager H. M. Johnson and Miss Nina Engman, a student from Sweden. High in his praise for Union, Elder Gidlund ask that he be quoted in saying, "I have visited several colleges and schools, but never have I been on a campus such as this one. The spirit of friendliness and hospitality is outstanding. I also think your CLOCK TOWER is an excellent paper."

Only those who have the patience to do simple things perfectly will acquire the skill to do difficult things easily.
