Annual Voice of Prophecy Appeal—October 10, 1970

MESSAGE FROM A CANADIAN MEMBER OF THE VOICE OF PROPHECY

Once a year we are granted the privilege of giving to the Voice of Prophecy radio ministry in all of the 3,391 churches in North America (U.S. and Canada). This year the annual offering is to be taken on Sabbath, October 10, 1970. We could wish this offering could be lifted to an excess of one million dollars, in view of the needs at the Voice of Prophecy for:

(1) Expanding the daily broadcasts.

(2) Updating and revising all the Bible correspondence courses.

(3) Producing and making available the complete "Way Out" programme for the youth of North America.

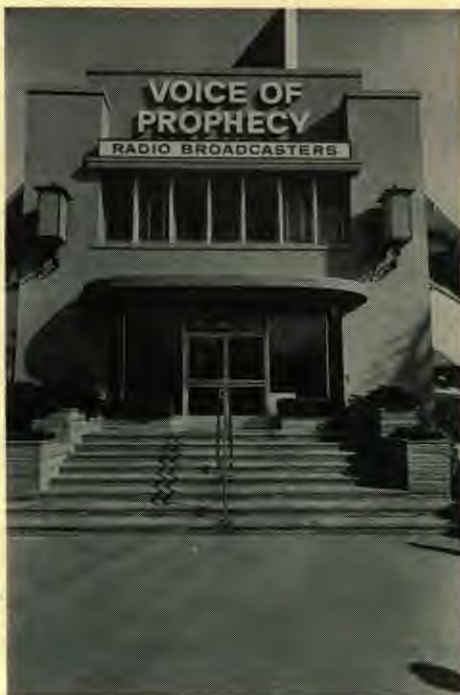

(4) Expanding the evangelistic follow-up Bible crusades all over the country.

The Committee of Counsellors for the Voice of Prophecy is unanimous in support of this programme. How wonderful it would be if every Adventist man and woman, boy and girl would do their share to press together and finish the work so that every ear may hear — and make a decision, for or against Christ — this year, and the next, and the next, until He comes.

ERWIN A. CRAWFORD, M.D.
Medical Secretary, Canadian Union and Member, Voice of Prophecy
Committee of Counsellors

Assume that Today—Just One Day—You Are the General Manager of the Voice of Prophecy

Have you ever wondered what happens "on the inside" at your church's Voice of Prophecy headquarters? Ever wondered what a day is like at broadcast headquarters at 1500 East Chevy Chase Drive in Glendale, California?

Assume that for one day — just for today — you are the general manager of the Voice of Prophecy. Here is the way your day would probably go:

Today is Thursday, and it is 7:15 when you park your Volkswagen beside the headquarters building. As you leave your car, you glance over at the Lemmon Memorial Building which houses the presses, other print equipment, and the foreign language Bible correspondence schools. You can hear the low-throated beat of one of the large presses already pumping out copies of the 240,000-circulation Voice of Prophecy NEWS.

At the door of the headquarters building, as you put the key into the lock, you suddenly remember a fact which you have calculated scores of times, trying to find a way towards savings: "It will cost $10,000 to open and operate this plant for just this one day," you repeat. And a prayer goes up, "Lord, send us funds from Thy faithful people so we can continue to 'go forward in faith' for Thee."

A stack of letters, requisitions, proposals and service reports await your attention on the desk in your office. But there is only time to attack one problem — or opportunity, depending on which way you look at it — before worship begins. A highly productive every-night "Nite Owl" broadcast has just been put off the air in the southwestern United States. What can be done to restore the "Voice" to the millions of night people who are awake through the night hours in the vast area covered by this station?

The broadcast's time-buying agency says an opening can be obtained on station XELO, El Paso, Texas, with 150,000 watts of power which will reach across all of America and into Canada. But the cost per programme will be about $15 more than that of the station from which the broadcast has been dropped. Can we afford this increase of some $5,400 per year?

The question resolved (to go on the new station "in faith"), you walk to the Voice of Prophecy chapel for the Thursday morning "Worldwide Prayer Circle," a feature of the broadcast for many years. During the next 30 minutes you feel the sorrow and share the joy and sense the trust in united prayer represented by the hundreds of prayer requests, many of which are read aloud to the entire broadcast staff of some 165 workers. Three fervent prayers by staff members close this always enriching service.

BROADCAST HEADQUARTERS of your Voice of prophecy, in Glendale, California, houses a communications complex which speaks to a potential audience of more than 60 million persons in North America each week. A staff of 165 workers operates the three-phase Voice of Prophecy witness — radio broadcasts, Bible correspondence schools, and public evangelistic crusades.

Back in your office by 8:35, you talk with two workers about their personal problems. Then you review finished artwork for the 1971 Voice of Prophecy calendar, a new-format production chock-full of photographs of staff activity.

As you study the calendar page devoted to the recently formed Voice of Prophecy Evangelistic Association, you quickly review where the evangelistic team members are on this day. VOPEA Evangelist Fordyce Detamore, along with VOPEA musicians Gordon and Phyllis Henderson and organist Norm Nelson, will begin a campaign in Eureka, California, in just three days. VOPEA Evangelist Daniel Guild is preparing for a three-week Bible Crusade in Jackson, Tennessee. Evangelist Byron R. Spears is currently in a crusade in Bermuda. And Pastor H. M. S. Richards, Jr., who serves as a VOPEA evangelist in addition to his many duties as speaker-director of the radiobroadcast, is gaining background for future evangelism while travelling on his vacation through the Reformation Lands of Europe.

The review of the proposed calendar completed, you contemplate a box containing expensive silver dinner which has just been donated by a listener to the radio ministry. You decide which of a list of helpful appraisers available to you should recommend a sale price for the gift.

With the morning racing rapidly toward noontime, you go upstairs from your office to the main Bible correspondence school offices to check on an installation to combat the hot, smog-filled air of late summer southern California. Entering the large room, where many Bible instructors are busy grading lessons, you think of the scope of this important, soul-saving work.

During last month alone, you recall, a group of 324 persons were baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist faith as the result of Voice of Prophecy Bible schools. You know, of course, that this is not the entire total; for many with a "Voice of Prophecy background" in terms of listening to the broadcast or being enrolled in a Bible course, or attending a Voice of Prophecy Bible Crusade, don't have their names listed at broadcast headquarters.

Also last month, you remember, the Bible instructors in this room, along with others in the other offices, graded more than 72,000 lessons. Nearly 5,000 new students were enrolled in the schools last month, and more than 1,200 diplomas of completion were awarded Bible course students.

Noontime crowds in as you leave the Bible school offices. You eat lunch at the nearby Glendale Adventist Hospital cafeteria then return to your desk to attack the stack of letters, notes, and other pieces awaiting your attention.

The hours pass quickly as you review requests for various members of the Voice of Prophecy's 21-member group which takes assignments in the field. Suggestions for changes in radio stations broadcasting the various programmes of the Voice of Prophecy take both study and much faith, especially where cost increases and significant differences in numbers of listeners are involved.

At 4:35 you push away from your desk and head for the press to discuss a printing job you requested several days ago. As you open the door to the pressroom, the heavy, pounding beat of the big two-colour press and its other one-colour companions fills the room with sound. Dropping out from under one of the spinning cylinders of the first press are bright blue sheets — fold-outs for the new youth outreach. "Bridge Over Troubled Waters," the pieces read as they pile up in a stack that will help meet the requests from some 70,000 young people who have written to "The Way Out" outreach since March of this year.

Another press is printing covers for the broadcast's popular books-for-the-month, while a third machine adds the final colour to the new, full-colour "Focus on Living" Bible course.

Your discussion with the manager of the press goes smoothly. Then, on impulse, you walk upstairs to look in on the foreign language Bible correspondence schools — Russian, Hungarian, German, Spanish — where you chat briefly with the supervisors and some of the other workers.

Midway through your last visit the chimes ring, ending the work day. But you know a number of the workers will ignore the signal staying at their tasks

BIBLE LESSONS BY THE THOUSANDS — more than 70,000 per month — are graded in the Voice of Prophecy's 17 different Bible correspondence schools. Nearly a quarter million students are on the "active" circular files in this main section of the several schools. Each month between 1,200 and 2,000 students are awarded diplomas upon completion of the truth-filled courses of study.

SPEAKERS AND MUSICIANS of the Voice of Prophecy get together in an informal songfest in a corner of the broadcast studios. Del Delker, the King's Herald (composed of Bob Edwards, Jim McClintock, Jerry Patton, and Jack Veazey), and Elders H. M. S. Richards and H. M. S. Richards, Jr., sing along with Brad Braley at the organ.

without pay because they want to do something extra in the soul-saving work of the Voice of Prophecy.

It is nearing 5:45 when you return to your office desk. Coming back from the Bible schools, you have stopped briefly in the studios where you have watched Elders H. M. S. Richards and H. M. S. Richards, Jr., finishing up a father-son broadcast in one studio, while Del Delker and the King's Heralds recorded a new song in a second studio. The words and the music brought renewed inspiration to your heart and you thanked your heavenly Father, there in the studio, for the privilege of a place in this special ministry for Him.

The clock in the office reads 7:18 when you finally leave for home your briefcase bulging with work you didn't have time to get at today. You are tired; the day has not been easy. But it has been a rewarding day — as every one here at broadcast headquarters is. You have been co-operating with heavenly agencies in helping to tell the plan of salvation to men and women, yes, and young people, too, wherever radio's magic fingers reach. And that is a rewarding task indeed!

FATHER-SON SPEAKING TEAM of Elders H. M. S. Richards, and H. M. S. Richards, Jr., now present the weekly and daily radio programmes of the Voice of Prophecy on some 650 stations throughout North America. Often presenting exciting question-and-answer sessions on the air, the team of speakers is proving successful in its mass audience appeal for Christ.

GREATEST POWER AT BROADCAST HEADQUARTERS is the power of prayer. Voice of Prophecy leaders (from left) B. F. Perez, Spanish speaker; Elder H. M. S. Richards, Elder H. M. S. Richards, Jr., and Alvin G. Munson, broadcast manager, gather around box containing hundreds of prayer requests while entire staff joins in Thursday morning Worldwide Prayer Circle, weekly highlight of Voice of Prophecy operation. Constant opportunities and problems related to the large broadcast ministry send leaders and staff members to their knees for divine guidance often several times a day.

Evangelism Programme in the Canadian Union To Be Greatly Strengthened

J. W. BOTHE, President, Canadian Union Conference

It is a pleasure to announce that Elder George Knowles has accepted the invitation of the Canadian Union Conference to serve as Union Ministerial Secretary.

This is a new step in our Union, but without a doubt it will be the means of strengthening the programme of evangelism. Pastor Knowles will not only hold public series himself, but will be ready to assist our ministerial workers in a greater evangelistic outreach.

To many of our members both Pastor and Mrs. Knowles are well known. Brother Knowles claims Vancouver, British Columbia as his birth place, and his wife the former Lillian Wolyk, comes from Saskatoon. We are happy to welcome back two of our fine Canadian workers.

Pastor Knowles comes to us with a rich background of experience. He graduated from Walla Walla College in 1951. He served as pastor and conference evangelist in the Upper Columbia Conference for about nine years. In 1960 he accepted a call to the Oregon Conference as conference evangelist. Later he served as Co-ordinator of Evangelism and Ministerial Secretary for Oregon.

During his work in Oregon for six years he conducted a weekly TV Bible class. He served as evangelist at the New Gallery Centre in London, England for one year. He has conducted overseas campaigns in England, Ireland and Singapore. He has also conducted four Field Schools of Evangelism for Andrews University.

I am sure our members will be encouraged to learn of this forward step in evangelism. Let us pray that many more precious souls will be brought to the Lord.

The Fastest Growing Church in the Ontario-Quebec Conference

ROY SULKER, Press Secretary, West Toronto Church

"The West Toronto Church is the fastest growing church in the Ontario-Quebec Conference." This statement was made by Pastor S. E. White, Secretary-treasurer of the Conference, at the First Anniversary Services, held August 22. It was one year ago that we moved into our present church building. It is getting very crowded already.

God is wonderfully blessing the ministry of Pastors Earl J. Parchment and Roy Adams as they join hearts and hands in finishing the work of the Lord. The pictures show thirty baptisms this summer.

Our prayer is that these members will be strengthened every day and remain faithful to God.

Family Week at Camp Frenda

Camp Frenda is situated on a lovely lake named after Mr. Detta. It has been abbreviated to Dete Lake. It is quiet, peaceful and really natural, left much alone by man and filled with wild life by a most generous God. Our cottage nestled in the woods between two doctors, so we should be well taken care of. Dr. E. A. Crawford's house, with its A line roof reaching to the ground and not far on the other side was Dr. R. J. Steele. Quite close to the water, not a stone's throw away, were rocks just under the water that one could sit on and enjoy the sunshine and dangle his feet in the quiet water.

Camp Frenda is a delightful place, very private and off the main highway. It even has a creek running from the lake inland, which seemed odd to me. There is plenty of paddling space for little folk and deep water for swimmers and skiers.

The nature groups had marked many plants and shrubs in the woods with names new to me. Some plants were familiar to me by sight and known by local names. There is a lovely walk midst shaded spots leading to the highway. The prevailing wind was southwest and this kept the camp fairly cool.

The view from our cottage in the early morning was most beautiful, the shadows from across the lake almost reaching our shore. We had a grand sail on the lake and saw the island owned by Mrs. Violet Hall, a teacher at Kingsway College, who lives there in the summer with her cats and dogs. As I looked at the scenery I longed to be an artist, but as I am not thus talented words must suffice. But who can describe a sunrise or a sunset, given by the Master Painter?

On my walk to the highway I saw many old plant friends growing beside the road, and also many flowers. One, however, intrigued me. I had seen it many times but never learned its name. It had a golden flower like our snap dragon, only it had no "snap". I learned that it is an antidote for Poison Ivy, of which there is none on the camp grounds. There were Ladyslippers, Lace Fern, Wild Carrot and Water Buttercups, Violets and many others. Some bushes had red or black berries which the birds enjoyed. On another walk I had been thinking how beautiful Eden must have been when I heard a rustle in the bushes. I froze in my tracks and watched a tiny chipmunk hanging by one hind legs on a branch and the other clutching another branch, while with his two front paws and his teeth he ripped the skin off a green pod, and lunched on a hazelnut. One morning I heard a Loon, and had a nice conversation with an unknown bird who had a long whistle and a trill. I imitated him and was answered several times. It is fun talking to the birds. There were several birds but not even a squirrel.

There was a nature house there with small wild life, but a baby raccoon got most of the attention.

One day we visited Sundridge and found the people friendly and not too busy to say "Good morning" or give directions or even to say, "Thank you", or "You're welcome."

Morning and evening worship was held

Hamilton Baptisms

The members of the Hamilton Church rejoiced as four more precious souls joined the remnant church of God and made an entire surrender and with God's people are striving for mastery over sin, appetites, passions, and temptations. Walter Riddell a student of Atlantic Union College, gave his heart to Christ. Mrs. Theresa Polzer and her son, Joseph, were never members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church but in search of truth joined the Reformed Adventists, a church which broke away from the true church. The father, son and daughter joined the Hamilton Church in January, while Mrs. Polzer waited for the return of her son daily, with campfire at night and all were welcome "except the mosquitoes." Our friends of years back, brought out many good spiritual meals for us to enjoy. The Sabbath services were held in the "Chapel in the Woods." The children had their Sabbath School too. The sermon by Elder Lowe, the solo, "There's Just One Thing To Do," by Mrs. Bill Brady all helped to remind us that there is only one thing to do — follow Jesus if we would have eternal life. In Sabbath School Dr. Steele gave some very interesting experiences from England, where he was a minister in the Reformed Church. Upon his return she witnessed of her new-found faith and together they followed their Saviour in baptism.

Mrs. Viola Gruener diligently studied with another denomination, but realizing their lack of truth, their dependence upon good works rather than upon the blood of Jesus, and their constant minimizing of the importance of prayer, was glad to find a people who have the whole truth and live it.

We give God the glory for her surrender and thank Him for mightily using Brother and Sister John Kneller, who showed love, kindness and kept sending our truth-filled literature to her home.

Each member has pledged to follow Christ all the way in service and obedience.

Brome Fair Booth

The Brome Fair Booth was a very good success on Labour Day week end. This was the best booth we have had yet and the new location was excellent for both the Book and Dorcas sales.

The ladies from Waterville, South Stukely and Abercorn Churches joined in with one accord to make the display and sale attractive and representative. Many people bought home-baked food which brought in $65.00 and many fine contacts were made in this way. The visitors to the display were pleased with the reasonable prices. Many thanks to the ladies who helped with baking and attending the booth.

Pastor J. H. Whalley sold over $200.00 worth of books at the fair. Over four hundred small books and pieces of literature were given away. Over fifteen hundred visited these displays. A special feature each day was a free drawing for a copy of Triumph of God's Love.

Sunday morning came at last and everyone started for "home". Sorry to leave this beautiful quiet place for the city's noisy life and work. Lots of activities for everyone, meals were delicious and as far as I have heard God guided everyone home safely.

Five-day Plan for the Blind

Elder R. H. Ferris, pastor of the Winnipeg Church, and his wife presented material for the Five-day Plan for the blind, to the assembled Manitoba-Saskatchewan Camp Meeting.

Pastor and Mrs. Ferris have been very active in the Winnipeg area helping people to quit the smoking habit. The pastor has been interviewed on radio and TV to tell of his work.

Pastor Ferris has a burden upon his heart to present the Five-day Plan to the blind. He made up an abbreviated guide book which the Christian Record published for him in Braille. This is also accompanied by a set of recorded tapes.

After one interview programme on WKY Radio which lasted for three hours, the call-in lines were jammed. More than 500 calls were received during the next two and a half days and many letters of inquiry were received.

Pastor Ferris has conducted eight Five-day programmes during the past year. They have been conducted in nursing homes, schools and service clubs. He has now been asked by the Seven Oaks School District to conduct his programme regularly as a part of their adult education programme. A joint Catholic and Anglican centre has also made requests.

Through the no-smoking programmes Pastor Ferris has brought the community service work of Seventh-day Adventists to the forefront in the Winnipeg area.

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind has especially appreciated his efforts as he has pioneered this special work for the blind.

Those who might be interested in this special programme for the blind might contact Pastor Ferris and he will be happy to share information with them.

As our physical life is sustained by food, so our spiritual life is sustained by the Word of God. And every soul is to receive life from God's Word for himself. As we must eat for ourselves in order to receive nourishment so we must receive the Word for ourselves. We are not to obtain it merely through the medium of another's mind. We should carefully study the Bible, asking God for the aid of the Holy Spirit, that we may understand His Word. We should take one verse, and concentrate the mind on the task of ascertaining the thought which God has put in that verse for us. We should dwell upon the thought until it becomes our own, and we know "what saith the Lord."

Every Home Visited In Yellowknife in the Northwest Territories

Dr. Steven Tarangle taking care of a very young Eskimo.

Elder Caris Lauda, director of the North American Mission board of the General Conference recently held five nights of evangelistic meetings in Yellowknife. Elder A. W. Kaytor, Alberta Conference President, was also in Yellowknife at that time to assist in the meetings and to survey the scope of the church work there.

Every home in Yellowknife was personally visited and invited to receive a year's subscription of the Signs of the Times free, as well as other Adventist literature. Adventists are well known and liked as a result of the personal contacts made by Pastor Bartsch and the Medical Centre operated by Dr. Steven Tarangle. Presently, Dr. Sidney Kettner, formerly of Edmonton, is working in the clinic and giving valuable help in promoting church work in Yellowknife.

Dr. Steven Tarangle, Henry Bartsch, local pastor, Pat Scott, student missionary from CUC for the summer, and Herb Larsen, Alberta Conference Lay Activities Secretary held a health programme in the auditorium of the Indian reservation at Fort Rae. Approximately 200 people turned out for the evening programme. Recently a letter came to Pastor Bartsch requesting more meetings of this nature to be presented in Fort Rae. The accompanying pictures will tell more of the story of Yellowknife.

Evangelism North of the Mighty Peace

PASTOR RON MYERS, District Pastor

The grain was ripe in the North as the Crusade Team moved northward across the Mighty Peace to begin the task of reaping. For years Brother and Sister Prosser have carried the burden of the work in Fort St. John. It has been for years that they have looked forward to an effort which would reap the results of their faithful witnessing. On August 8, after a day of fasting and prayer the meetings began with an average attendance of thirty. The people came back night after night to hear Verne Snow and to see the truth illustrated on the screen. Danny sang and his wife, Donna Jackson, supplied the music which enriched hearts.

One of the thrilling features was to see the children coming each night to the nursery story hour conducted by Sister Ron Myers and Sister Verne Snow. One little girl of nine requested to be baptized as a result of the appealing stories of Jesus and His love. Her mother, who brought seven children with her each night, expressed her amazement at what the children had learned during the meetings.

August 29 was the first baptism night and ten followed their Lord through the waters, seven of whom were the direct result of the Prosser's faithfulness. One other joined the church by profession of faith.

Rich experiences came in as one young lady, who had requested of her employer for Friday and Saturday free, was told she had only two weeks' notice to leave, but just before her baptism her employer told her that Friday and Saturday would be her days off. A man who had asked three times in two years for Sabbath free and had been told that his services would not be needed if he would not work Saturdays, made another request but this time he was going to give up the job. Faith won again for the manager told him he could have both the Sabbath and the job.

The team was supported by literature evangelists Dan Basaraba, Bill Obery, Lyle Walker and Elder and Sister Lennox and their son Rodger. These men of faith worked the district in advance encouraging the people to come to the meetings and in selling literature. Lyle Walker sold books to one lady who attended all the lectures. He found her smoking cigarettes and suggested to her that she need not smoke if she used faith. At first she didn't believe but later decided to try. Faith won and she was made whole. She and two of her children were baptized.

The following week four more victories were won, some after years of struggle, some to face opposition.

Now the Crusade is over but not the harvest. The team has gone back to school but victories are still being won north of the Mighty Peace. The little church with only two members has now grown to seventeen.

Jesus once said, "My Word shall not return unto me void," and for this we give thanks. The harvest truly is ripe.

Unites with Powell River Company

The Powell River company on the Sabbath Mr. Peter Remple (extreme left) was baptized.

Mr. Peter Remple was baptized at Powell River, uniting with the company there. Pastor A. Lennox officiated at the ceremony which was held in church June 6.

Mr. Remple's first introduction to the Advent message was through the television broadcast, It Is Written. He took the Bible course that was offered. His name was then sent to Pastor Gildersleeve of the Northern Light who visited Mr. Remple and encouraged him to further his studies by taking the Voice of Prophecy Faith course. He also invited him to come to Sabbath School. After completing this course and having several personal studies with Pastor Gildersleeve, Mr. Remple requested baptism.

Seed Sown in China Bears Fruit in Canada

William W. L. Hamlyn first heard of the Adventist message as a child. We had faithful missionaries in China the country of his birth. Desiring to know more of this message and of God's plan for his life, Brother Hamlyn completed several Bible Correspondence Courses. Following a series of studies by Pastor Edwin L. Stewart in the Kamloops Church, he expressed his desire to follow Christ all the way and was baptized on March 21, 1970. Realizing that God is particular in all that we do, he willingly gave up his tobacco, a habit of many years, and was happy to conform his life according to the standard of God's Word.

We believe Brother Hamlyn was blessed with a special ability for quickly learning languages. He speaks seven, plus four dialects. Having travelled widely, he gave valuable service to the Allied Forces (in the Secret Service) during World War 2 in Europe. He still carries shrapnel, a reminder of those bitter days.

May God bless Brother Hamlyn now in a special way that he may render even more valuable service for Christ who bears the marks in His body since He purchased us all with the price of His own blood on Calvary's cross.

Prince George Mini Camp Meeting

W. W. ROGERS, PR Department

A weekend mini Camp Meeting was held at Prince George July 31 and August 1. Worshippers came from all directions for the well-attended meetings. Distances are so great in the Conference that it was felt that there were quite a few in the North who would like to go to Camp Meeting but found Hope too far. This was the idea behind the meeting and the attendance proved it to be correct.

Pastor A. N. How Conference president, spoke at the opening meeting. Sabbath morning Pastor John Popowich, newly arrived in British Columbia, spoke at the worship service. Sabbath afternoon there was a full programme. Dr. Albert Sanchez of Loma Linda University gave an illustrated lecture. A baptism was held in the church. A mission report featuring India consisting of coloured slides and costumes was also presented. The busy events concluded after supper with a fine programme of sacred music by the "Waymarks" singing group.

Young Couple Depart for Mission Service in Africa

W. JAMES-VEITCH

Friends and relatives of Martin and Eileen Moores gathered at the Kelowna airport to wish this young couple god-speed as they departed for the eastern United States and subsequently a mission post in Nairobi, Kenya, East Africa.

Martin is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Moores of South River, Ontario and is a graduate of C.U.C. and Andrews University. Martin has artcled in Kelowna for the past three years and will complete his Chartered Accountant degree this fall in Nairobi where he will take up the position of accountant for the mission headquarters. His wife, Eileen (nee Bayliss) graduated from C.U.C. and taught church school for three years, first at Rest Haven, B.C., and then at Oshawa.

Martin and Eileen left Kelowna June 10 and flew to Atlantic City where they attended the General Conference Session and were featured with current missionary appointees in the world pageant of missions.

Following General Conference they attended Andrews University Institute of World Missions. They left around the first of September for Nairobi.

The Kelowna Church honoured this young couple with a potluck gathering where they were presented with a sum of money. The church in Kelowna will sorely miss these two talented young people who were such ardent, cheerful workers.

The past year has seen three mission appointees leave the Kelowna Church for Africa. They are Marilyn Pinder who is assistant Director of Nursing at our training college in Addis Abbaba, Ethiopia, Floyd Petersen, wife and daughter, to Zambia where Floyd teaches, and Martin and Eileen Moores to Nairobi.

En route to the mission field a baby daughter, Heather Dawn, was born to the Moores.

"Wayout" Youth Evangelism Conducted Throughout The Conference

W. W. ROGERS, PR Secretary
B.C. Conference

The British Columbia Conference, in an attempt to reach more of the youth, has tried an experiment in Youth Evangelism. This new departure was the "Wayouts", a youth singing group. This musical group was composed of talent from Canadian Union College and Walla Walla College. Composing it were Delwin Spenst, Brian Proskiw, Rita Leiske, Gerry Leiske, Judy Lee, Jim Matiko and pianist Lyle Hatley.

During the summer, programmes were conducted across the conference and in neighbouring areas. Concerts were given in the open air at Kamloops, Butchart Gardens (Victoria) and the Kelowna Regatta to name a few. Inside programmes were equally varied — churches, rallies, and the Pacific National Exhibition. The purpose of these programmes was to bring inspiration to our church youth and interest non-church youth in the "Wayout" programme sponsored by the Voice of Prophecy. For this purpose, at the programmes they wore "Wayout" insignia, presented a spiritual talk directed at youth and gave out "Wayout" enrolment blanks. This proved quite effective with the youth.

From this limited exposure there have been concrete results. Youth who had decided to leave the church have decided to "join up" again and work for others.

Some of those outside the church have said that "if a church is alive and doing something with youth, we want to know more about it." Besides this type of direct contact there are the hundreds who have enrolled in the "Wayout" Bible Course.

The group cut a record which they promoted as well. It was hoped that the sales from this would cover expenses for the seven during the summer. Any wishing the record may still order it through Gerry Leiske, 11548-140th Street, Surrey, B.C.

William Hetke Wedding Anniversary

AMY S. WAGNER, Rutland Press Secretary

Mr. and Mrs. William Hetke recently celebrated their 41st wedding anniversary quietly in their home in Rutland.

Brother Hetke was born in Poland, coming to Canada in 1929. He and Mrs. Hetke were married 41 years ago in Winnipeg.

During the '30s Elders Ben and Sam Reile held evangelistic meetings at White Mouth, Manitoba, and the Hetkes accepted this Message along with a number of other families. The pastors believed in Christian education and thoroughly indoctrinated their new converts. Since there was no church school at White Mouth these new members moved to Kelowna, B.C., where their children could attend the Okanagan Academy. From the Hetkes, Kuhns, Knellers Rohrigs, Herzogs and other families whose children attended school here there are the following workers: one minister, three doctors, (two of whom are instructors in

Mr. and Mrs. William Hetke.

Loma Linda,) one PhD instructor at Andrews University, nine R.N.'s, one physiotherapist, teachers and one Publishing House photographer and others with useful occupations.

Present for their anniversary were all the Hetke children and grandchildren. Their eldest daughter, Agnes, and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Arno Kutzner, Shirley and Wendy came from Phoenix, Arizona where Arno is studying for his Doctorate Degree in Education and Administration at the University of Arizona. Arnold Kutzner was the former principal of the Lowry Memorial School in India.

Nettie and her family, (Mr. and Mrs. Rex English, Max and Scott,) came from Herminston, Oregon where her husband is teaching. Florence and her family, (Mr. and Mrs. Merle Toftner, Gregory, Cindy, and Tammie,) motored down from the Peace River Country. Their only son, Elsworth, and his wife, Eleanor, and son Theodore, were here from India where he is President of South Maharashtra Section near Hatkanagle.

We wish Brother and Sister Hetke many more happy years together.

Sabbath School on the campground.

Well, we've done it again! We have conducted camp for thirty-four boys and girls of the Golden area. (Actually, they came from all around, Blaeberry, Golden, Nicholson, Parson, Revelstoke, and Malakwa.)

Every day was packed with activity, work, play, vocational pursuits, and eating! Thanks to our excellent counsellors and instructors we were able to complete thirty-four vocational honours. Of these there were seven in Wilderness Living, led by Mrs. Helen Hathaway; nine Campcraft, by Pastor Howard Homenchuk; five Canoeing, six Intermediate Swimming, and one Advanced Swimming, by Harold Zinner; and six in Cooking, by Audrey Reimche.

Delicious meals were prepared by Mrs. Pauline Herman and Mrs. Dawna Lemke. Mrs. Shirley Thorp nursed all the little casualties — lovingly and efficiently. Algie Bunting was the camp's indispensable handy-man, and Rocky Seward climaxed the camping programme with a twenty-mile Saturday night hayride. Pastor Homenchuk provided spiritual meat daily and we trust that every camper was drawn nearer to Christ for having been there.

BETTY BUNTING, Camp Director

Faith for Today Soul-Winning Campaigns

By WILLIAM R. LAWSON, Manager

In twenty years of television ministry, 16,225 have been baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Our 1970 goal is 2,000 baptisms. We are confident God will bless our efforts and those of thousands who have prayed and sacrificed to televise the gospel tidings.

Faith for Today's decision campaigns have resulted in 901 baptisms. Currently Pastor Everett E. Duncan is conducting an evangelistic series in St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada, while Pastor Gordon F. Dalrymple is holding meetings for metropolitan Trenton, New Jersey.

We rejoice over soul-winning progress following Faith for Today's twentieth anniversary year. God is abundantly blessing our efforts.

In Penticton, British Columbia, a high school honour student dialed the telecast. He was so impressed with Pastor Fagal's message that he requested the free Bible lessons.

He informed his parents, owners of a motel in the city, concerning his decision to keep the Sabbath after he completed the course. He was baptized recently — the direct result of having viewed Faith for Today.

We thank everyone for their sacrificial giving of both large and small donations. Every dollar sent to the telecast office has been put to work for soul winning.

If you have funds that could be used in a trust fund, annuity, or that could be given outright to the telecast ministry, they will be the means of leading men and women to accept Christ.

After labouring for 13 years in the Northland, he was called back to the Idaho Conference where he spent the following 13 years.

Retiring in 1966, he moved to British Columbia. Here the Lord extended his ministry for four more years.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Katherine; a daughter (Meribeth) Mrs. W. E. McFarlane of Hong Kong; and a son, William of San Jose. Also surviving are four grandchildren; a brother, William B. Wagner of Long Beach, California; and two sisters, Mrs. James McBride of Tacoma, Washington, and Mrs. Martha Giffen of Sacramento, California.
