Ukrainian "Voice of Hope"

Ukrainian Radio Broadcast in New York

As there are four radio broadcasts in the Ukrainian language in Canada, given by two of our ministers, the little Ukrainian church of 15 members located in the New York Center took up the question at a Sabbath morning service, why should we not give our message to the two hundred thousand Ukrainians here in the New York area and in New Jersey. These people will not come to our meetings and the only way to reach them would be by radio. The pastor of the church, Elder Eduard Magi, and the secretary-treasurer both spoke to the church about it. This was in early September. It was earnestly prayed about. Arising from the prayer, the pastor gave the first offer of financial aid to the plan and suddenly the small church "took fire." In three minutes over four hundred dollars were gathered in cash and pledges. The foundation was laid.

Soon the radio minister from Canada, Elder Nikolas Ilchuk, was invited to counsel with us concerning the plans. Upon his arrival he and the pastor found a station that was willing to sell us time. In God's providence the same time is used now for Ukrainian commercial purposes, so the Ukrainians will tune it in to listen to their news and will get the message. We could not miss this marvelous opportunity, and after counsel with our conference president, the contract was signed.

The next Sabbath was a great day for the Ukrainian church. It was the very first time they had a Ukrainian minister to preach to them, and at the same time the radio broadcast was laid again before the church.

Elder Ilchuk promised to give his tapes for use in the broadcast, and also to print some literature, Bible correspondence lessons, etc. — all free of charge. We have to pay only for the time, $120 for a half hour.

The following week was one of busy preparation. Some leaflets had to be printed, a post office box secured, and other details taken care of. As the Sabbath came, the pastor had a special sermon prepared and he called it "Heavenly Radio." He explained how we may send to the Lord our prayers and He hears us. At the end of his sermon he stated that, while the union and the General Conference may help us another year, the church has to have funds to start the broadcast and to keep it going to the end of this year. And there happened a real wonder—the church gave in cash and pledges $1,900. So we have the funds for two months in this year. Who were these givers? Among those fifteen members are two poor widows, two elderly pensioned members, six children, and three or four parents. Some promised to pay a second tithe for the radio work. Some promised to pay at the end of the year, but some did not dare to wait, and on the next Sabbath more than one thousand dollars was brought to the pulpit in cash.

To be on the air fifteen months, we need about $7,000, so we are short about $5,000. We hope and depend on help from outside the church. We know that as the Israelites stepped in the water, the waves opened a way to them to go through. The Lord is the same today and will do the same wonders also today.

The first broadcast will be November 1 at 8:30 a.m. over station WEVD, dial 1330 AM and 97.3 FM. The speaker is Elder N. Ilchuk, and the musical selections will be given by the Ukrainian S.D.A. Choir in Winnipeg, Ontario, and soloist Joseph Melashenko of Springfield, Mass.; and also by the Faith for Today Quartet, who took the effort to learn some songs in the Ukrainian language.

Pray for this humble start of the Ukrainian broadcast in New York. We are sure the Lord will bless this work and we may soon give a further encouraging report.

EDUARD MAGI, Pastor

The Scriptures in 1127 Languages

Some part of the Bible has been published in 1127 languages and dialects as of December 31, 1957, according to a statement issued by the American Bible Society. Nineteen new languages have been added to the list since the last report, five of which had a Scripture Portion for the first time. They were: Anuak, spoken in the Sudan; Aztec of Guerrero, Mexico; Beti, the Camerouns; Binukid, a dialect spoken in the Philippines, and Pocomchi in Guatemala.

Languages in which the whole Bible has been published .....	215
Languages in which the New Testament has been published .....	270
Languages in which at least a Gospel or other whole Book has been published .....	642
Total languages in which some part of the Bible has been published .....	1,127

Five complete Bibles were published for the first time last year in the following languages: Kanda, spoken in Kenya; Lakher in Assam; Ndau spoken in Rhodesia; Tigrinya in Eritrea and Tumbuka in Nyasaland.

Five complete New Testaments were published for the first time in: Central Chuana, Bechuanaland; Habbe in French West Africa; Kilega spoken in Belgian Congo; Manus Island, Admiralty Islands, and Truk, spoken in the Caroline Islands, Liebenzeller Mission.

"When the Saints Go Marching In"

Who will be your marching partner when you enter the city of God? Perhaps it will be the Faith for Today viewer who declared after making her decision for baptism, "I want to be one of that number when the saints go marching in."

There's a mighty army of TV interests who are on their way to the sea of glass. As they fall into step with the people of God, praise and thanksgiving pour forth from their lips. A Mississippi convert writes, "I can't express the many thanks I owe you for helping me to see the light, the true way of God's commandments."

A Vermont viewer is not content to march along with the column. She wants to serve as she marches. "I'm attending the Adventist church," she says. "This seems to be the sort of church I've been looking for, for years. I want to be active and it needs help." Every Adventist church can surely use new members of that caliber.

Every month that passes brings new TV recruits for the march to the kingdom. They ask you to accept their thanks for your generosity in providing the Faith for Today program that pointed out the way.

My Favorite Sermon

No, I'm not a preacher, but as a local elder I've preached a good many sermons. And of all the messages the Lord has enabled me to give, the one that has brought the most blessing to my own soul, the one that church members have found most stirring to their hearts, is a study on the blessings of tithing.

This sermon, I might say, almost preaches itself—never twice the same, because it has grown out of my own experience. And every year, every month brings me renewed evidence of God's steadfastness in honoring His promise, "I will pour you out a blessing. . . . there shall not be room enough to receive it."

That is not to say that my wife and I have not at times faced severe financial problems, but from the time when we first accepted the Advent message, our loyalty to the tithing plan has never faltered.

As a matter of fact, as a new believer I was so concerned about returning to God His own that I determined to tithe all my earnings up to the time of my conversion. This was impossible to do all at once, so many was the Sabbath from month to month that I dropped an extra $100 bill into the collection plate in addition to my regular current tithe. In my ignorance I failed to mark it as extra tithe on an envelope, but God surely noted and signally blessed my sincere intent.

Later, illness came and I was forced to spend many weeks in the hospital. Half my savings went for medical bills. Then my wife fell ill. Those were indeed trying times, but do you know what upheld us and gave us faith and courage to claim God's healing power? It was the confidence and peace in our hearts that came from the knowledge that we had always been fair in our dealings with our heavenly Partner. Without this knowledge of having paid a faithful tithe, we would be utterly unable to enjoy any of God's blessings. Paying tithe is now automatic. Withholding it would be unthinkable.

Through the years we have also been able to give offerings as God has prospered. This we have counted a privilege—a joy to set aside funds for contributions as the special needs of God's expanding work have been presented to us. In addition, we have had the responsibility of helping members of our own family who have needed continuing financial assistance.

But always we have had food and shelter and all things needful. Best of all, we have had the peace of mind that comes from dealing honestly with a loving Partner.

So to every new believer, to every fellow-member who has been longer in the way, I would commend the paying of a faithful tithe as the entrance to that incomparable state — "the peace that passeth understanding."

E. S. OLIVER

Advent Movement

A number of changes have taken place during the past weeks in the conference office, the New York Center, and among the workers in the field. We are sorry to lose those who have moved on to other places of responsibility, but we wish them the Lord's richest blessings in their new fields of endeavors.

He plans to conduct an evangelistic series in the New York Center this winter in association with his brother, S. L. Folkenberg, who came here with his family from the Northern California Conference. He was pastorevangelist there. Mrs. Folkenberg is teaching in our church school at Pearl River.

Having accepted our invitation, V. A. Anderson of Buffalo, N.Y., is now serving as pastor of our Danish Norwegian church in Bay Ridge. We are happy to have Elder and Mrs. Anderson join our group of workers.

Dorcas Federation Meetings

The three Dorcas Federations in the Greater New York Conference held their fall meetings over the week end of October 4-6. Elder C. E. Guenther, associate secretary of the General Conference Home Missionary Department, presented some excellent material on the church's civil defense program.

The Spanish Federation met in the Manhattan Spanish church with approximately 150 persons present. Reports from the various Spanish societies show an increase in the amount of Dorcas welfare work being done in every church.

New officers were elected in each of the other two Federations. The Up-state Federation, meeting at Livingston on Sunday, re-elected Mrs. A. B. Heiser (Newburgh society) as president; Mrs. Betty O'Hara (Poughkeepsie) as vice-president, and Miss Gladys Kniffen (Middletown) as secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Howard Munson (Livingston) was elected assistant secretary.

The Metropolitan Federation re-elected Mrs. Rose Rullo (Italian-American church) as president and Mrs. Lucile Avilla (Italian Bronx church) as secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Sally Gross (Pearl River) was elected as vice-president, and Mrs. Gertrude Pieroni (Italian Bronx) was named assistant secretary.

Welcome to Kinneys

After serving for a number of years in the New York Conference, Elder V. A. Anderson recently accepted a call to Brooklyn, N.Y. He pastored the Jamestown district, and more recently the Buffalo area. Those of us who have known the Andersons down through the years have learned to love them. Their earnest efforts have been appreciated by the members whom they have served. As we say "good-by" to Elder and Mrs. Anderson, we wish them the continued blessing of the Lord in their new responsibilities.

To fill the vacancy in the Buffalo area, created by the leaving of Elder Anderson, our committee extended a call to Elder C. Ray Kinney. Elder Kinney has accepted our invitation and is now located in Buffalo. We feel fortunate indeed to secure a man of his ability to head up our work in this important center. Elder Kinney was born in Michigan and grew up in Vermont. Mrs. Kinney was born in Connecticut. She is a sister of J. E. Osterblom, who has held positions of responsibility in the Atlantic Union and is well known. Brother and Sister Kinney have served faithfully together down through the years. He has pastored such churches as Providence, Oklahoma City, Chicago, and New York City. We most warmly welcome the Kinneys to New York State.

As the Buffalo members sell the old church building on Hedley Place and move into the new Temple, their future indeed looks bright with promise of growth. ROSCOE W. MOORE

Workers' Meeting

The workers in the New York Conference recently met for the annual fall workers' meeting. We were privileged to have Elder Andrew C. Fearing, associate secretary of the Ministerial Association of the General Conference. Elder W. J. Hackett, president of the Atlantic Union, was present to give valuable help and inspiration to the workers. Elder T. R. Gardner, secretary-treasurer of the Atlantic Union, was also present.

Many items were discussed, but the main theme of the first day of the meetings was the These Times campaign, for which Elder Ihrig from the Southern Publishing Association was present, and also Elder Frank Baer from the International Branch of the Pacific Press Publishing Association in Brookfield, Ill. The last two days of the meetings consisted of discussion, study, and counsel by Elder Fearing regarding evangelistic methods, home visitation, and pastoral visitation, the main emphasis of the meetings being on soul-winning.

It was a most profitable workers' meeting, and we trust that our workers in the New York Conference will, with added zeal, enter into the great work of soul-winning. CARL P. ANDERSON

Baptism

Sabbath, October 4, was a high day in the Amsterdam church when nine precious souls were baptized and united with the church. Four little children were dedicated to the Lord at the same service.

One sister, the wife of the manager of a local business firm, and eight members of a family of ten were baptized in the newly installed baptistry. It was a touching scene to see Mr. and Mrs. Rew with their two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Weeden with their two younger children stand before the altar as the writer read a number of Scriptures and offered a dedicatory prayer. Then he took each child in his arms and pronounced a blessing on them.

Following the dedication service, the baptismal service took place. Credit must be given to a wide-awake layman for finding and winning the family of ten. This family had been the victims of a fire that burned their home. Not having any church affiliation, they decided that they should unite with a church. A local minister called on them, but they did not feel that the people were very spiritual. The pastor of another church called on them, but they felt that Jesus was more dignified than they saw people acting in that worship. They prayed earnestly that the Lord would show them which church had the truth.

Albert Wittaker, a member of the Amsterdam church, who lives in Canajoharie, had read in the newspaper about this family having been burned out. He felt impressed to call on them. In his conversation with them a missionary visit followed, which led to a Bible study. The family was so impressed that they invited him to return and give them more studies. This invitation he gladly accepted.

The family decided that they could now afford to build a new house. Hence they decided to buy a farm with a house on it. The real estate man took them to a farm about sixty miles from the home of Brother Wittaker. They bought the farm. But they wanted more Bible studies. Our layman did not give them up. He drove those many miles week after week, giving them studies and establishing them in the truth. Finally they requested baptism.

The writer was contacted and visited the family, found them well established in the message and with a deep love for the Lord. They were certain they had found the true church. Arrangements were made for the baptism of Brother and Sister Weeden and the six older children and the dedication of the two younger children.

May the Lord bless the work of our laymen, and the nine precious souls that the church saw baptized at this impressive and solemn service, and the four little ones that were dedicated to the Lord.

Farewell

A number of years ago in England, a minister and his wife were about to leave the church and members they had learned to love to go to a new parish. Their few possessions were loaded on the wagon. Just before they left, the members gathered for their final farewell. Words of regret were spoken, tears were shed. Finally the minister held a hurried consultation with his wife. The minister and his wife then untied the ropes, unloaded the wagon and carried their possessions back into the house. The minister then sat down and wrote the lines of a familiar hymn:

Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love,
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

When we asunder part
It gives us inward pain
But we shall still be joined in heart
And hope to meet again.

A few weeks ago, after spending seven years in the church in Buffalo, we experienced the same feelings and emotions as we conducted our farewell service and bade farewell at a Saturday night gathering. We felt like Jacob, who served seven years for Rachel, but it seemed like a few days because of his love for her.

During these seven years, it was our happy privilege to welcome many new members into the fold. A number were united in marriage. During this period 38 individuals, some of them pillars in the Buffalo church, were tenderly laid to rest to await the welcome call of the Life-giver.

Improvements were also made on the church edifice. A new and imposing front was built. Recently new pulpit furniture, costing nearly $1,500, was purchased. However, the greatest undertaking was the recent purchase of the Christian Science church for an evangelistic center in Buffalo. This church was erected at a cost of $750,000. The Counsellors were called in and as usual there was a liberal response on the part of the Buffalo members. Sufficient funds were raised to take care of the budget, which will amount to $121,000.

While in the New York Conference, we also had the privilege of serving in the Jamestown district for three and one-half years. We will always remember the love and devotion of our members there.

We solicit your prayers as we leave for Brooklyn, our new field of labor. We know that here, too, we will find the same spirit of devotion on the part of our faithful members who are also looking for "that one far off divine event toward which the whole creation moves." Our new address will be 1968 E. 19th Street, Brooklyn, N.Y. May the Lord be with us all until the work is finished and our parting days will be forever ended.

VICTOR A. ANDERSON

Highway Signs

The General Conference Public Relations Department has prepared excellent highway signs calling people's attention to our church, its location, and time of service. Brother Donald Wright, pastor of the Willimantic district, and the members in Putnam, Conn., have erected four signs on the highways leading into the city. And they have just erected five highway signs informing the public of our church in Quinebaug, Conn.

We are glad that Brother Wright and the members in these two churches have seen the possibilities in erecting these signs and calling people's attention to our churches. Sister White tells us that even the name Seventh-day Adventist, when read by the public, makes an impression that will cause many to think and to investigate.

If your church does not already have highway signs on the main arteries, why not secure them and let them be telling their story.

Farewell

It is with mingled feelings of sadness and happy anticipation that Mrs. Pike and I bid farewell to the Southern and Northern New England Conferences where we have spent so many happy years and made so many dear friends. It is truly a home leaving, for the folk we have come to know and love have found a permanent place in our hearts. Then, too, our children were born, reared, and educated in New England. The years have been most happy and rewarding ones and the work here lies very near our hearts. Each one of you will be long remembered for the part you have played in our joys and successes.

We have accepted a call to labor in the East Pennsylvania Conference and will be connected with the York-Hanover district. It is with much anticipation and confidence in the Lord's leading that we go to our new field of labor. Should any of you come through this beauty spot of nature, we invite you to look us up.

Our prayers will be with you all and we solicit an interest in your prayers as we unitedly bow before the throne of grace. May we all be faithful in whatever capacity God calls to serve, that the work may soon be finished and the harvest gathered in. Then we may all go home with Jesus and there be reunited with friends and loved ones.

Our new address is 864 Taxville Rd., West York, Pa. It would be a genuine pleasure to hear from you.

OBITUARIES

BLOOD—Mrs. Sarah Israel Blood was born in Ipswich, N.H., July 1, 1875, the daughter of the late John R. Israel and Charity A. (Lent) Israel.

At the age of eighteen she became a member of the Worcester Seventh-day Adventist church, the rite of baptism having been administered by the late Elder H. W. Cottrell.

For thirty-six years Sister Blood was active in Sabbath school and church work in Worcester until she transferred her membership to South Lancaster in 1929. It was always her joy and pleasure to participate in the activities of the church as her waning strength would permit.

Our sister became the wife of Arthur W. Blood on April 14, 1897. Into their home in Lancaster, Mass., two sons were born. Both husband and sons have preceded her in death.

Sarah Blood died in the Clinton Hospital on October 19, 1958, after a long illness. She is survived by four grandchildren: Mrs. Sally Rouleau, South Lancaster, Mass.; Mrs. Phyllis Cowan, Burbank, Calif.; Arthur W. Blood, Burbank, Calif.; Mrs. Patricia Flader, Fontana, Calif.; and four great-grandchildren.

R. W. KNAPP

FURBUSH—Sylvia Mae Furbush was born June 9, 1878, in Dixfield, Me., and died in the Grandview Nursing Home in Fitchburg, Mass., on September 26, 1958.

Sister Furbush accepted the Advent truth just two years ago after attending a series of evangelistic meetings conducted by Elder L. E. Tucker. She was 78 years old when she was baptized. She awaits the resurrection, resting in the Mount Vernon Cemetery, North Abington, Mass. W. W. MENSCHEN

TARBELL—Mrs. Margaret Tarbell was born January 19, 1882, and died September 26, 1958. She was baptized by Elder Glen Coon in 1941 and was a member of the Onondaga Reservation church. Sister Tarbell was the leader of the Dorcas Society.

Sister Tarbell, along with Sister Winder, one of our pioneer members, also deceased, had a part in helping to build the little church on the Onondaga Reservation.

She is survived by two daughters, a son, and a stepson, eight grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

MRS. MARGUERITE SCHENANDOAH

CUSHING—Stanley Albert Cushing, Jr., was born on November 6, 1920, at Portland, Me., and accidentally drowned at Cliff Island on September 29, 1958.

His boyhood years were spent at Cliff Island, where he attended the church school. During World War II he served nearly two years in the United States Navy. On June 22, 1941, he was married to Mary Ballem, of Boston, Mass. To them were born three children, Lloyd, Marjorie, and David. The family moved to Portland in 1947. Stanley was engaged in lobster fishing and was well known in Casco Bay.

Surviving are his wife and three children; his parents, Stanley A. and Margaret Cushing; two sisters, Mrs. Leland Merrill and Beverly Cushing; besides many relatives.

Our dear brother, Stanley, was a faithful husband, an affectionate father, a helpful son, a loyal brother, and a kind and accommodating neighbor. His manly bearing and open countenance testified of a clean life of earnest toil graced with character and integrity.

As a Christian, he showed an active interest in church work at an early age. During years of service in several Seventh-day Adventist churches, he developed into a capable and talented leader, whose energy and counsel were greatly appreciated. His leadership was blended with modesty and dignity, winning him respect and confidence.

It was his conviction that every transaction of life, both in the church and out, should be without reproach, and he built his life upon this noble principle.

In recent weeks he demonstrated a determination to accomplish even more for God and humanity.

As was said of Barnabas in the New Testament, so it might be said of Stanley Cushing, Jr., that, "he was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith."

Funeral services were conducted at Portland, Maine, by Elder James D. Meade, assisted by Elders H. E. Voorhees and the writer.

had a brief visit in Auburn, Me., with Elder G. S. Remick, who has been convalescing from a recent siege of pneumonia. They report that he is progressing nicely and is looking forward to assuming his duties in a few weeks as the newly appointed pastor of the churches in the Bridgeport district.

● Elder Kenneth Tilghman was the guest speaker at the Bridgeport church for Sabbath, October 11. Brother Carl Jacobs, our assistant treasurer and assistant auditor, was the guest speaker on the same day at the Bethel-Danbury church.

● "Songs of the Gospel" by Norman Round, the Gospel Baritone, of Methuen can be heard over radio station Lawrence, WCCM, 800 on the dial each Sunday at 1:00 p.m.

● The members of the Gardner church put the finishing touches on their new church building during the last week of September, and on Sabbath, October 4, the first services were conducted there. A beautiful mural for the baptismal background was painted by Mrs. Stella Forrest as a gift to the church. The work on the church was completed in time for the opening of a series of evangelistic meetings by the pastor. Eighty-five people were present for the opening service of the evangelistic campaign and twenty-one were non-Adventists. Norman Frost, a ministerial student from the college, is assisting in the meetings being conducted two nights a week.

● Elder and Mrs. E. L. Longway were guests in South Lancaster the past week end. His mission talk and pictures at the South Lancaster church Sabbath night were an inspiration to all present.

Ingathering Gains Momentum

Ingathering got off to a brilliant start last Sabbath, October 18, when the Flying Squadrons began their evening activities. These activities continued through Thursday, with several cars going out each evening.

Students and faculty also put in a full day, when cars went out morning, afternoon, and evening. Those who were unable to get away from their work were urged to donate the day's wages.

This campaign is under the direction of R. Elliott Schermerhorn, home missionary secretary of the Student Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, with L. E. Tucker, College church pastor, supervising and assisting. The bands formed for all missionary activities are the basis for the Ingathering. The territory covered is that assigned to the Student Conference.

Enthusiasm runs high, and confidence in reaching the goal has been expressed freely.

A.U.C. in Youth Rally

Several students of Atlantic Union College participated in the youth rally held at Augusta, Me., on October 18 and 19.

Our male quartet—Myron Krueger, Jim Everts, Dick Valle, and Dan Kelly—thrilled the audience with their singing. Especially enjoyed was their arrangement of "In a Moment."

The audience greatly enjoyed Elaine Kirk's violin numbers. Mrs. Myron Krueger was the organist. One pastor remarked, "If I had my way, I'd listen to them all day."

We are happy to say that students of South Lancaster Academy also took part. Drusilla Westermeyer, Jeanne Bettle, and Dede Legare volunteered in the MV's "Sons of the Pioneers" group seeking souls for Christ. Crystal Farley sang.

It is indeed wonderful to see our young people taking part in spreading the gospel. CONNIE H. GACUSANA

"The sovereignty of God involves fullness of blessing to all created beings." D.A. 478.

They will be returning to the mission field immediately following Fall Council, were he will again assume his duties as president of the South China Island Union Mission.

● V. A. LaGrone, L. A. Pomeroy, and R. L. Walin attended the annual publishing convention held at the Review and Herald, Washington, D.C., October 20-22.
